PREFACE TO NEW EDITION.

THE Author, feeling grateful to a generous public for the very liberal patronage which they have given the former editions of the Southern Harmony, has endeavoured to remedy the only deficiency which he has heard mentioned, by adding a large number of good tunes for church use, together with several excellent new pieces never before published, which has enlarged the work about forty pages, and makes it one of the largest Music Books ever offered at the same price. Therefore he hopes to secure that continued and increased patronage which it may merit from those who love the Songs of Zion.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., January, 1847.

WILLIAM WALKER.

PREFACE TO REVISED EDITION.

SINCE the SOUTHERN HARMONY was first published, many of the tunes having gone out of use, the Author determined to revise the work, and leave out those pieces, and supply their places with good new tunes, which have been selected for their intrinsic worth, and great popularity, and highly devotional character. He has also enlarged the work with thirty-two pages of excellent music, many of the tunes being suitable for revival occasions. All of which he hopes will be found entirely satisfactory to the many friends and patrons of the Southern Harmony.

The Author new tenders his grateful thanks to a generous and enlightened public for the very flattering manner in which the former editions of this work have been received, and hopes that this revised edition may be duly appreciated, and the demand for it increase as its merits may deserve.

SPARTANBURO, S. C., July, 1854.

PREFACE TO FORMER EDITION.

THE compiler of this work, having been solicited for several years by his brother teachers, pupils, and other friends, to publish a work of this kind, has consented to yield to their solicitations.

In treating upon the rudiments of Music, I have endeavoured to lead the pupil on step by step, from A, B, C, in the gamut, to the more abstruse parts of this delightful science, having inserted the gamut as it should be learned, in a pleasing conversation between the pupil and his teacher.

In selecting the Tunes, Hymns, and Anthems, I have endeavoured to gratify the taste of all, and supply the churches with a number of good, plain tunes, suited to the various metres contained in their different Hymn Books.

While those that are fond of fuged tunes have not been neglected, I have endeavoured to make this book a complete Musical Companion for the aged as well as the youth. Those that are partial to ancient music, will here find some good old acquaintances which will cause them to remember with pleasure the scenes of life that are past and gone; while my youthful companions, who are more fond of modern music, I hope will find a sufficient number of new tunes to satisfy them, as I have spared no pains in trying to select such tunes as would meet the wishes of the public.

I have also selected a number of excellent new Songs, and printed them under the tunes, which I hope will be found satisfactory. Some object to new publications of music, because the compilers alter the tunes. I have endeavoured to select the tunes from original authors. Where this could not be done, and the tune having six or seven basses and trebles, I have selected those I thought most consistent with the rules of composition.

I have composed the parts to a great many good airs, (which I could not find in any publication, nor in manuscript,) and assigned my name as the author. I have also composed several tunes wholly, and inserted them in this work, which also bear my name.

The compiler now commends this work to the public, praying God that it may be a means of advancing this important and delightful science, and of cheering the weary pilgrim on his way to the celestial city above.

THE GAMUT, OR RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC.

PART FIRST.

OF MUSIC.

PUPIL. What is Music ?

TRACHER. Music is a succession of pleasing sounds.

- P. On what is music written?
- T. On five perallel lines including the spaces between them, which is celled a stave; and tnese lines and spaces are represented by the first seven letters in the alphabet, A, B, C, D, E, F, and G. These letters also represent the seven sounds that belong to each key-note in music: when eight letters are used, the first is repeated.
- P. How many parts ore there used in vocal music?
- 1. Commenly only four; viz. Bass, Tener, Counter, and Treble; and the letters are placed on the stares for the several parts in the following order, commencing at the space below the first line in each stave.

BASS STAVE NATURAL.

TENOR OR TREBLE STAVE NATURAL.

		G sol O F —— faw △ law □ —— sol — O faw △	Space above. Fifth line. Fourth space. Fourth line. Third space.
2-	B	law □	Third line. Second space.

	Λ		law	-Second line.
	G		sol O	First space.
	F		faw-\	-First line.
	E		law 🗆	Space below.

You may observe that the letters are named or called by the names of the four notes used in music. You see in the above staves that F is named faw, C sol, A law, B me, C faw, D sol, E law, and F faw again; every eighth letter being the first repeated, which is an octave; for every eighth is an octave.

P. Hew many notes are there used in music, what are their names, and how are they made \boldsymbol{l}

T All notes of music winter represent sounds are called by four names, and each note is known by its shape, viz.; the me is a diamond, faw is triangle, sol is round, and law is square. See the example.

- P. But in some music books the tunes are written in round notes entirely. How do we know by what names to call the notes in these books?*
- T. By first finding the me for me is the governing and leading note; and when that is found, the notes on the lines and spaces in regular succession are called, faw, sol, law, faw, sol, law, (twice,) and those below the me, law, sol, faw, law, sol, faw, (twice;) after which me will come again. Either way, see the following—

* For singing Doe, Rae, See, seven syllables and numerals, see p. xxxi.

This is the rule for singing round notes. You must therefore observe that the natural place for the me in parts of music is on that line or space represented by B.

P. How wany marks of sound or kinds of notes are there used in music?

T. There are six kinds of notes used in music, which differ in time. They are the semibreve, minim, crotchet, quaver, semiquaver, and demisemiquaver.

SCALE OF NOTES.

The following scale will show, at one view, the proportion one note bears to another.

Explain the abive scale.

T. The semibreve ____ is now the longest now used, it is white, without a stem, and is the measure -O note, and guideth all the others

The minim is but half the length of a semihreve, and has a stem to it.

The crotchet __ is but half the length of the minim, and has a black head and straight stem.

The quaver is but half the length of the crotchet, has a black head, and one turn to the return to the stera, sometimes one way, and sometimes another.

The semiquaver is but half the length of the quaver, has also a black head and two turns to the stem, which are likewise various.

The demisemiquaver is half the length of a semiquaver, has a black head, and three turns to its stem, also variously turned.

P. What are rests ?

T. All rests are marks of silence, which signify that you must keep silent so long a time as takes to sound the notes they represent, except the semibrevo rest, which is called the bar rest, always filling the bar, let the mood of time be what it may,

Semibreve. Minim. Crotchet. Quaver. Semiquaver. Quaver. Two Bars. Four Bars. Eight Bars.

- P. Explain the rests.
- T. The semibreve, or bar res , is a black square underneath the third line.

The minum rest is the same mark above the third line.

The demisemiquaver rest is like the last described, with a third mark to the left.

The two bar rest is a strong bar reaching only across the third space.

The four bar rest is a strong bar crossing the second and third space and third line. The eight bar rest is two strong bars like the last described.

Note.—These notes are sounded sometimes quicker, and sometimes slower, according to the several moods of time. The notes of themselves always bear the same proportion to each other, whatever the mood of time may be.

OF THE SEVERAL MOODS OF TIME.

- P. Please tell me how many moods of time there are in music.
- 7. There are nine moods of time used; four of common, three of triple, and two of compound.
 - P. Why are the first four moods called common time moods?
 - T. Because they are measured by even numbers, as 2, 4, 8, &c.
 - P. Why are the next three called triple moods?
- T. Because they are measured by odd numbers, having either three minims, three cretchets, or three quavers, in each bar.
 - P. Why are the last two called compound time moods?
- T. Because they are compounded of common and triple; of common, as the bar is divided equal, the fall being equal to the rise in keeping time; and of triple, as each half of the bar is three fold; having either three crotchets, three quavers, or notes to that amount, to each beat.
 - P. Please explain the several moods of time in their order.

MOODS OF COMMON TIME

The first mood is known by a plain C, and has a semibreve or us quantity in a measure, sung in the time of four seconds—four beats in a bar, two down and two up.

The second mood is known by a C with a bar through it, has the same measure, sung in the time of three seconds—four neats in a bar, two down and two up.

The third mood is known by a C inverted, sometimes with a bar through it, has the same measure as the first two, suog in the time of two seconds two beats in a bar. This mood is sometimes marked with the figure 4 above 4, thus,

and the other up.

MOODS OF TRIPLE TIME.

The first mood of triple time is known by a figure 3 over a figure 2, has a pointed semibreve, or three minims in a measure, sung in the time of three seconds—three beats, two down and one up.

figure 4, has a minim for a measure note, sung in the time of one second-two beats in a bar, one down

The second mood is known by a figure 3 over a 1, 2 and san pointed minim or three crotchets in a measure, and sung in 2 seconds—three beats in a bar, two down and one up.

The third mood is known by the figure 3 above figure 8, has three quavers in a measure, and sung in the time of one second—three heats in a bar, two down and one up

d d u 31 n ddu

MOODS OF COMPOUND TIME

The first mood of compound time is known by the figure 6 above figure 4, has six crotchets in a measure, sung in the time of two seconds—two beats in a bar, one down and one up.

The second mode of compound time is snown by the figure 6 above an 8, has six quavers in a measure, sung in the time of one second and a half—two beats in a bar, one down and one up.

- P. What do the figures over the bar, and the letters d and u unde it, in the above examples of time, mean?
- T. The figures show how many beats there are in each bar and the letter a shows when the hand must go down, and the u when up.
- P. What general rule is there for beating time !
- T. That the hand fall at the beginning, and rise at the end of each bar, in all meeds of time.
- P. Do you suppose those moods, when expressed by figures, have any particular signification, more than being mere arbitrary characters?
- T I think they have this significant meaning, that the lower figure shows how many parts or kinds of notes the semibreve is divided into, and the upper figure signifies how many of such notes or parts will fill a bar—for example, the first mood of compound time, (6 above 4.) shows the semibreve is divided into four parts—i.e. into crotchets, (for four crotchets are equal to one semibreve;) and the upper figure 6 shows that six of these parts, viz. crotchets, fill a bar. So of any other time expressed by figures.
- P. How shall we with sufficient exactness ascertain the proper time of each beat in the different moods?
- 7. By making use of a pendulum, the cord of which, from the centre of the ball to the jan from which it is suspended, to be, for the several moods, of the following lengths:—

	For the first and third moods of common time, the first of triple
i	and first of compound, [all requiring second beats,]	39	2-10 inc
Į	For the second moed of common, second of triple, and first of
ı	compound,	22	1 10
l	compound, For the fourth of commen	12	4-10
	For the third of triple time,'

Then for every swing or vibration of the ball, count one Veat, accompanying the motion with the hand, till something of a habit is formed, for the several moods of time, according to the different lengths of the cord, as expressed above.

Norz.—If teachers would fall upon this or some other method, for ascertaming and keeping the true time, there would not be so much difficulty among singers, taught at different schools, about timing music together; for it matters not how well individual singers may perform, if, when several of them perform together, they do not keep time woll, they disgust, instead of pleasing their hearers.

OF ACCENT

- P. What is meant by accent?
- T. Accent is a particular emphasis or swell of voice on a certain part of the measure which is according to the subdivision of it, and is essential to a skilful performance of music, as the chief intention of accent is to mark emphatical words more sensibly, and express the passions more feelingly. If the peetry be good, and the music skilfully adapted, the important words will fall upon the accented parts of the bar. Should emphatical words happer: on the unaccented part, the music should always bend to the words.
 - P. What part of the measure is accented in the several moods of time ?
- T. The first three moods of common time are accented on the first and third note in the measure when the bar is divided into four equal parts; and the fourth mood accented on the first part of the measure when only two notes are in a bar; if four, accent as in the first three. In triple time, when the measure is divided into three equal parts, the accent is on the first and third; if only two notes are in a bar, the accent is an theorem to the first and fourth notes in the measure, when the bar is divided into six equal parts. Couplet accent is when two notes are accented together, as two quavers in the first three moods in common time, or two crotchets in the first mood of triple ture. &. In keeping time the accent is always strongers with the down beaus

- P. What is meant by syncopation, or syncopated notes?
- T. Syncopation is any number of notes set on the same tine or space included by a slur; sometimes driven across or through the bar, and sometimes in the middle; one of such notes only are to be named, but sound the time of all the notes, whether driven across the bar or not, swelling the voice a little at the usual place of the accent.

upon it, as though it were in the usual place of the accent, as in common time having half the time of the measure in the middle; as a minim between two crotchets, or a crotchet preceding a pointed minim, or a crotchet between two quavers, &c.

EXAMPLES OF SYNCOPEED NOTES.

OF THE KEYS OR KEY NOTES.

- P. What is meant by the keys in music, how many are there, and how are they known?
- T. The key note of every correct piece of music is the leading note of the tune, by which all the other sounds throughout the tûne are compared, and is always the last note in the bass, and generally in the tenor. If the last note in the bass he faw immediately above me, the tune is on a sharp or major key; but if law immediately below me, it is a flat or minor key.
- There are but two natural places for the keys, A and C. A is the natural place of the flat key, and C the natural place of the sharp key. Without the aid of the flats and sharps at the beginning of the stave, no tune can rightly be set to any other than these two natural keys; but by the help of these, me, the centre, leading and governing note, and of course the keys, are removed at pleasure, and form what are called artificial keys, producing the same effect as the two natural keys; i. e. by fixing the two semi or half tones equally distant from the key notes. The difference between the major and minor keys is as follows; the major key note has its 3d, 6th, and 7th intervals, ascending half a tone higher than the same intervals ascending from the minor key note; and this is the reason some tunes are on a sharp key, and others on a flat key. This also is the reason some tunes are on a sharp key, and others on a flat key. This also is the reason why music set to the minor or flat key is generally sprightly and cheerful; whereas music set to the minor or flat key is pensive and melancholy. Sharp key tunes tunes that the sing hymms and pealing of praise and hanksgiving, and flat key tunes those of prayer and supplication.

OF TONES AND SEMITONES.

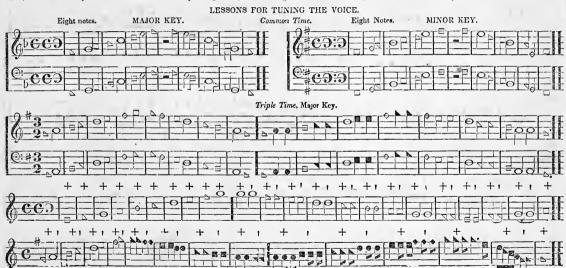

- P What is meant by tones and semi or half tones?
- T. There are said to be lutt seven sounds belonging to every key note in music, every eighth being the same, and is called an octave. Therefore these sounds are represented by only seven letters. These sounds in music are called thones; five of them are called whole tones, and two of them semitones or half tones. The natural places for the semitones are between B and C, and between E and F, and they are always between me and faw, and law and faw, find them where you may.
 - P. Are the semitones always between the same letters in every tune?
- T. No; although the natural situation of semitones are between B C and E F yet their situations, as well as the two keys, are very often altered by flats and sharps set at the beginning of the tune. You therefore remember that the natural place for the me is on B, but if B be flat, me is on E, &c.; and if F be sharp, me is on F, &c. Of course, if the me is removed, the semitones are as the semitones are always, between me and faw, and law ond faw.
- P. Well, my good teacher, I am very much obliged to you for this explanation for I have studied a great deal about them, but it is now plain to me.
- T Well, my atudious pupil, as you understand these rules pretty well, you avenow proceed to singles

OF SOUNDING THE EIGHT NOTES.

- P. Please tell me how to sound the eight notes, and where I must commence ?
- T. Commerce first on faw, the major or sharp key note on the tenor and treble stave; then ascend softly from one sound to another till you sing the eighth note on the fifth line, which is an octave; then descend, falling softly from one sound to use other till you end at the close. Then commence on law, the minor or flat key note, ascend and descend in the same manner till you come to the close. By this you learn the difference between the major and minor moods or keys.

After having sounded the eight notes several times, you may go on to sing the other lessons for tuning the voice, and then some plain tunes.

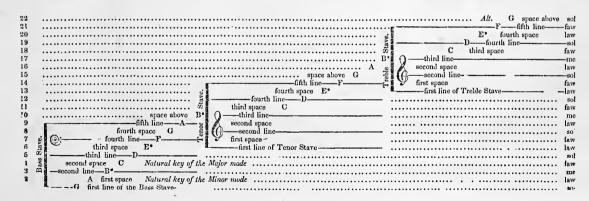

PART SECOND.

INTRODUCTION TO THE GENERAL SCALE, AND RULES FOR

Fire following is a representation of the general scale, showing the connexion of the parts, and also what sound of the general scale each letter, line, or space in either of the octaves represents for instance, A the minor key, occupies the 2d, 9th, and 16th sounds of the general scale: C, the natural major key, the 4th, 11th, and 18th. Thus, it will appear that every octave being unison, are considered one and the same sound. Although the last in the bass is the key note, and in case the me is not transposed, will either be on the 2d and 4th degrees as above stated, yet with the same propriety we may suppose them on the 9th, 11th. &c. degrees; for when we refer to a pitchpipe for the sound of either of the foregoing keys, if it be properly constructed, it will exactly correspond to the 9th, 11th, &c. sounds of the general scale. Then by descending the octave, we get the sound of the natural key; then by ascending a 3d, 4th, or 5th, as the tune may require, we readily discover whether the piece be properly keyed. If we find, after descending the octave, we can ascend to the highest note in the tenor or treble, and can pronounce them with eass and freedom, the piece may be said to be properly keyed; but if, on the contrary, after descending, we find it difficult to ascend as above, the piece is improperly keyed, and should be set lower.

Nork.—This method of proving the keys is infallible to individuals, and will hold good in choirs, when we suppose the teacher or leader capable of judging for the commonality of voices.

The foregoing scale comprises three octaves, or twenty-two sounds.

The F clos, sound in the general scale.

used on the second line in the tenor and treble, shows that that line, I in the tenor, is the eighth sound in the general scale, and in the tre-The G clef, the the treble, as well as the tenor, were performed entirely by men, the general scale would comprise only fifteen sounds; hence, the treble stave is only raised an octave above that of tenor, in consequence that female voices are naturally an octave above men's, and to females the treble is usually assigned. The stars (*) show the natural places of the semitones.

When the C clef is used, (though it has now become very common to write counter on either the G or F clefs,) the middle line in the counter is in unisen with the third space in tenor, (C,) and a seventh above the middle line in the bass, &c.

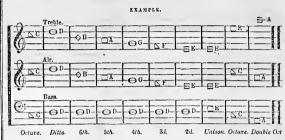

Three octaves being more than any common voice can perform, the bass is assigned to the gravest of men's voices, the tenor to the highest of men's, and the treble to the female voices: the counter (when used) to boys, and the gravest of the female voices.

Two sounds equally high, or equally low, however unequal in their force, are said to be in unison, one with the other. Consequently, E on the lower line in the treble stave, is in unisen with E on the fourth space in the tenor; and E on the third space in bass, is in unison with E on the first line of the tenor, and an octave below E, the lower line in the treble. The See the General Scale. From any one letter in the general scale, to another of the same name, the interval is an octave-as from B to B. D to D. &c.

Agreeably to the F and G clefs used in the general scale, a note on any line or space in the bass, is a sixth below a note on a corresponding line or space in the Ener, and a thirteenth below a note in the troble occopying the same line or space, when the roble is performed by females.) The See the General Scale. Suppose we place a note on D, middle line of the bass, another on B, the middle line of the tenor or treble, the interval will appear as just stated; and to find any other interval, count either ascending or descending, as the case may be.

In counting intervals, remember to include both notes or letters-thus, in counting a sixth in the above example, D is one, E is two, F is three, G is four, A five, and B six.

In the above example, the notes in the treble and air are placed in unison with each other. But assigning the treble to female voices, and the air to men's voices, (as is customary,) an octave must be added to the notes in the treble, (as previously observed of a woman's voice being an octave more acute than a man's,) the interval then being the bass and treble-in the first bar, would be a fifteenth or double octave . in the third bar, the note on B in the treble, a thirtcenth above D in the bass, &c. Observe that an octave and a second make a ninth; an octave and a third make a tenth; an octave and a fourth make an eleventh; an octave and a fifth make a twelfth; an octave and a sixth, a thirteenth; an octave and a seventh, a fourteenth two octaves, a fifteenth, &c. always including both the first and last note.

OF HARMONY AND COMPOSITION

Having given an explanation of the different intervals contained in the octave, and the manner in which the parts of music are connected, I proceed to show how they may be used in composition to produce harmony.

Harmony consists in the proportion of the distance of two, three, or four sounds, performed at the same time, and mingling in a most pleasing manner to the ear.

The notes which produce harmony, when sounded together, are called concords, and their intervals, consonant intervals. The notes which, when sounded together, produce a disagreeable sound to the ear, are called discords, and their intervals, dissonant intervals. There are but four concords in music—viz: unison, third, fifth, and sixth; (their eighths or catves are also meant.) The unison is called a perfect chord, and commonly the fifth is so called; if the composer please, however, he may make the fifth imperfect, when composing more than two parts. The third and sixth are called imperfect, their chords being not so full, nor so agreeable to the ear, as the perfect; but in four parts the sixth is often used instead of the fifth so in effect there are but three concords, employed together, in composition.

N B. The meaning of imperfect, signifies that it wants a semitone of its perfections, to what it does when it is perfect: for as the lesser or imperfect third includes that three half tones, the greater or major third includes four, &c. The discords are a second, a fourth, a seventh, and their octaves; though the greater fourth sometimes somes very near to the sound of an imperfect chord, it being the same in ratio as the minor fifth. Indeed some composers (the writer of these extracts is one of them) seem very partial to the greater fourth, and frequently admit it in composition. The following is an example of the several concords and discords, and their octaves under them:

Single Chords.	1	3	5	6	2	4	7
Their Octaves.	8	10	12	13	9	11	14
	15	17	19	20	16	18	21
(22	24	25	27	23	25	28

Notwithstanding the 2d, 4th, 7th, &c., are properly discords, yet a skilful composes may use them to some advantage, provided a full chord of all the parts immediated follow: they will then answer a similar purpose to acid, which being tasted immediately previous to sweet gives the latter a more pleasing flavour. Although the 4th is really a discord, yet it is very often used in composition. The rough sound of the 4th may be so mollified by the sweetness of the 5th and 8th as to harmonize almost us well as any three sounds in nature; and it would be reasonable to suppose that where we have two perfect chords, a discord may be introduced with very little violation to the laws of harmony; but as it is the most difficult part of composition to use a discord in such a manner and place as to show more fully the power and beauty of masic, we think composers should only use them sparingly, (as it is much better to have all sweet than to have too much sour or bitter,) and always let them be followed by a perfect chord.

ON THE TRANSPOSITION OF KEYS.

The reason why the two natural keys are transposed by flats and sharps at the heginning of the stave, is to bring them within the stave, and to bring the music within the compass of the voice. The key notes or places of the keys are always found in the last note of the bass of a correct tune, and is either faw immediately above me the sharp key-or law immediately below me the flat key. The reason why one tune is en a sharp, lively key, and another on a flat, melancholy key, is, that every third, sixth and seventh, ascending from the sharp key, are ualf a tone higher than the same intervals ascending from the flat key note. For instance, a third ascending from the sharp key note faw, (being a major third,) is very different from a third ascending from law the flat key note, (a minor third,) and so of other intervals. Any persen may be convinced of this by hearing a tune song first in a flat and afterwards in a sharp key; when if the parts are correctly earried on, the choids will be entirely changed, and the tune as first sung, will scarcely be recognised or thought to be tue same; we will give one example. Let Windham tune be sung on its proper flat key, and then on a sharp key, and the intervals will be entirely changed, and so with any nther tune. (See the example.)

EXAMPLE.

WINDHAM-on the flat key law, its proper key.

WINDHAM-on the sharp key faw.

EXAMPLES OF THE KEYS.

In the Major key, from law to faw, its third, the interval is two tones, [a Major third]—from faw to law, its sixth, the interval is four tones and a semi-ine, [a Major sixth]—and from faw to me, its seventh, the interval is five tones and a semitone, [a Major seventh.]

In the Minor key, from law to faw, its third, the interval is one tone and a semitone, (Minor third)—from law to faw, its sixth, the interval is three tones and two semitones, [a Minor sixth] and from law to sol, its seventh, the interval is four tones and two semitones, [a Miror seventh.]

Grand Control of the Control of the Major Key. Minor Kev.

To prove the utility of removing the key, I will produce two examples. First, Let the tine "Sufficial" be written on key note A, (natural flat key,) instead of E, its proper key—and, besides the inconvenience of multiplying ledger lines, few voices would be able to perform it—the treble in particular.

SUFFIELD-on E, its proper key, from the repeat.

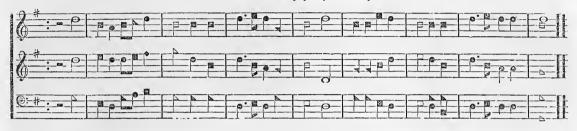

The same on A, the assumed, or natural key A.

Second, Let "Complainer" be written on key note C, (natural sharp key,) instead of G, its proper key, and there are but few that could perform it,—the toner in particular.

COMPLAINER-on G, its proper key, from the repeat.

The same on the assumed, or natural key C.

THE GAMUT, OR RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC

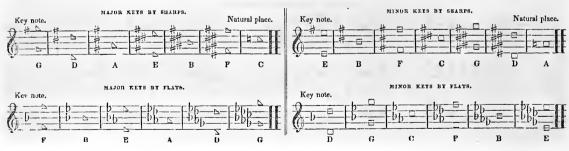

The me, and consequently the keys, is removed either by sharping its fifth or latting its fourth thus:

(1. A fifth from B me, its natural place, will bring us to
1. A fifth from B me, will bring us to. C
Z 3. A fifth from C me, will bring us to
4. A fifth from G me, will bring us to
5. A fifth from D me, will bring us to > 6. A fifth from A me, will bring us to
7. A fifth from E me, will bring us back to Cri 11 men nom 2 me, mm mag =
1. A fourth from B me, will bring us to.
4. A fourth from D me, will bring us to
4. A fourth from G me, will bring us to C 5. A fourth from G me, will bring us to F 7. A fourth from F me, will bring us to B

This accounts for the customary rules of transposition, viz.

"By flats the me is driven round,
Till forced on B to stand its ground;
By sharps the me's led through the keys,
Till brought to B its native place."

A SCALE, SHOWING THE SITUATION OF BOTH KEYS IN EVERY TRANSPOSITION OF THE ME BY SHARPS AND FLATS.

A SCALE, SHOWING THE SITUATION OF THE SEMITONES IN EVERY TRANSPOSITION OF THE ME BY FLATS AND SHARPS BY FLATS

Observe that, by six flats or six sharps, (including the natural place,) both of the keys are placed on every letter in the stave, and by the same number of either character, (including the natural place,) the whole octave is divided into semitones; and it is impossible to use another flat or sharp in transposition, for seven flats or sharps would only put them in their natural places. You may also observe, that one flat, or six sharps, places the keys and semitones precisely in the same situation; and that one snarp, or six flats, has the same effect, and two flats or five sharps, and 'two sharps or five flats, &c.; and with six flats, or one sharp, one of the semitones is in its natural place; i. e. between B and C. Also with six sharps, or one flat, one of the semitones is in its natural place, i. e. hetween E and F, as the natural places of the scinitones are between B and C, and E and F; and we suppose the reason why both of these characters are used in transposing music, is to save the trouble and time of making so many of either character; for a person can make one flat much quicker than six sharps, or one sharp que ker than six flats, &c.

Thus I think I have showed satisfactorily how the keys are removed, and how the | A octave is divided into semitones ov flats and snarps, and why both characters are weed in transposition

The figures at the left hand of the column of notes shows the degrees of the sharp key, those at the right hand show the degrees of the flat key. This scale shows that the Q is between the two keys, and that the first degree of the sharp key is the first note above the O, and that the first degree of the flat key is the first note below the Q

Every sharp key has its relative flat key a tord below; and every flat key has its relative sharp key a third above

These admit of an easy and natural transition from one to the 0"12".

Every sharp at the beginning of a tune takes the place of me, the fourth degree from the sharp key, and raises that note half a tone, and remove the me and the key to the fifth above or to the fourth below

Every flat at the beginning of a tune takes the place of the me, sinks that note ask a tone, and removes the me and the key to the fourth above, or to the fifth below.

The seven sounds have also distinct names from their situation and effect in the alc. The key note is called the tonic; the next above, or its second, the super-onic—its third, the mediant—its fourth, the subdominant—its fifth, the dominant—its sixth, the submediant—its seventh, the leading note.

Tonie, Supertonic, Mediant, Subdominant, Dominant, Submediant, L. note.

The toric is so called from its being the principal or pitch of the tune.

The supertonic is so called from its being the note above the tonic.

The mediant is so called from its being in the middle way between the tonic and dominant.

The subdominant is so called from its being the fifth below the tonic, as the dominant is the fifth above.

The dominant is so called from its being a principal note, and requires the tonic generally to be heard after it, especially at a close, and is therefore said to govern it.

generally to be heard after it, especially at a close, and is therefore said to govern it.

'The submediant is so called from its being in the middle way between the tonic and its fifth below.

The leading note is so called from its leading to the tonic, and is the sharp seventh of the scale, and therefore in the minor mode is necessarily sharpened in ascending.

There are also fourteen intervals in the scale bearing distinct names, viz.; Unison, Minor second, Major second, Minor third, Perfect fifth, Minor sixth, Major sixth, Minor seventh, Major seventh, Octave.

As the scale admits of only twelve semitones, so an octave although by counting the first and last note, which are octaves to each other, and really one and the same sound in effect; it contains thirteen sounds, yet it has but twelve intervals, because the unison cannot properly be called an interval; and the sharp fourth and flat fifth, although necessarily distinguished in harmony, are performed on keyed instruments with the same keys and make but one interval.

ON THE MODULATION OF KEY.

The modulation or changing of the key note from one letter or given tone to another, being so frequent in every regular composition, particularly Anthems, that the performers will be very often embarrassed, unless they endeavour to sequire a knowledge or habit of discerning those changes.

The transition from one letter or key is sometimes effected by gradual preparation, as year cliental flats, sharps, or naturals. When the change is gradual, the new key is announced by flats, sharps, or naturals. When the change is sudden, the usual signs or signature at the beginning of the stave are either altered or removed as in the tune called the Christian's Song, or the Judgment Anthem.

EXAMPLE.

THE GAMUT, OR RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC

To aid those who wish further information with respect to the best method of modulation by retaining the sol fawing system, the following observations are added.

In order to do this, the syllables "inst follow into the new key and take the sameplace there which they held in the original key; i. c. faw must be the new key note, sol its dominant or fifth, and me its leading note, if changing from the minor to the major mode or key. If changing from major to minor, law must be the new key, and law mediant to the major key its dominant, and are also its leading note.

There are four different pitches which the composer may consistently change to form any given pitch; viz. the fifth of the given pitch may be changed to the key note by adding such flats, sharps, or naturals, as will place the semitones in their regular degrees in the diatonic scale, (the scale in common use,) to the fourth, observing the same order of semitones, or to the sixth, its relative minor key, or change itself into a minor key if previously major, (see the example,) from C major to C minor, In order to modulate into the fourth of the key, the major 7th is made flat. For example, in the key of C major, by flatting B, F becomes the key note. To apply the syllables in this case, let C immediately preceding the flat be called sol, preserving the tone of faw, its former name, then by falling a whole tone to B, calling it faw, you come into the key of F. In modulating into the fifth of the key, the fourth is made sharp, and becomes the leading note or sharp seventh of the new key. Example :- In the key of C major by sharping F you make G the key note. In order to apply the syllables in this case, let G immediately preceding the sharp be called faw, preserving the tone which it held as sol, then by falling half a tone, and calling F me, you arrive at the key of G.

This is the method most common to be used in psalmody in modulating from one key to another.

Having gone thus far with our subject, we feel willing to close by making a few observations on the ornamental part of singing, or what are generally termed graces. This is the name generally given to those occasional embellishments which a performer or composer introduces to heighten the effect of a composition. It consists not only n giving due place to the apogiatura turn, shake, or trill, and other decorative adultions, but in that easy, smooth, and natural expression of the passages which heat conveys the native beauties and elegancies of the composition, and forms one of the fact attributes of a cultivated and relined performer

A person or persons may be well acquainted with all the various characters in psalmody, for music;) they may also be able to sing their pan in true time, and yet their performance be far from pleasing; if it is devoid of necessary embellishments, their manner and bad expression may conspire to render it disagreeable. A few plain hints, and also a few general and friendly observations, we hope will tend to correct these grows in revision of feed music.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

- 1. Care should be taken that all the parts (when singing together) begin upon their proper pitch. If they are too high, difficulty and perhaps discords will be the consequence; if too low, dulness and languor. If the parts are not united by their corresponding degrees, the whole piece may be run into confusion and jargon before it ends; and perhaps the whole occasioned by an error in the pitch of one or more of the parts of only one semitione.
- 2. It is by no means necessary to constitute good singers that they should sing very loud. Each one should sing so soft as not to drown the teacher's voice, and each part so soft as will admit the other parts to be distinctly heard. If the teacher's voice cannot be heard it cannot be imitated, (as that is the best way to modulate the voice and make it harmonious,) and if the singers of any one are so loud that they cannot hear the other parts because of their own noise, the parts are surely not rightly proportioned, and order to be altered.
- 3 When singing in concert the bass should be sounded full, bold, and majeste, bu. not harsh; the tenor regular, firm, and distinct; the counter clear and plaini, and be treble soft and mild, but not faint. The tenor and treble may consider the German flute; the sound of which they may endeavour to imitate, if they wish to improve the rates.
- Flat keyed tunes should be sung softer than sharp keyed ones, and may be proportioned with a lighter bass; but for sharp keyed tunes let the bass be full and strong, but never harsh.
- 5. The high notes, quick notes, and slurred notes, of each part, should be sung softer than the low notes, long notes, and single notes, of the same parts. All the notes included by one slur should be sung at one breath if possible.
- 6. Learners should sing all parts of music somewhat softer than their leaders do, as it tends to cultivate the voice and give them an opportunity of following in a piece with which they are not well acquainted; but a good voice may be soon much injured by singing too loud.
- When notes of the tenor fall below those of the bass, the tenor should be sounded strong, and the bass soft.
- 8. While first learning a tune it may be sung somewhat slower than the true time or mood of time requires, until the notes can be named and truly sounded without looking on the book.
- 9. Learners are apt to give the first note where a fuge begins nearly double the time it ought to have, sounding a crotchet almost as long as a minim in any other part of the tune, which puts the parts in confusion by losing time; whereas the fuges ough to be moved off lively, the time decreasing (or the notes sting quicker) and the sound.

of the engaged part or parts increasing in sound as the others fall in. All solos or || teacher know a flat keyed tune from a sharp keyed one, what part of the anthem, &c fuges should be sung somewhat faster than when all the parts are moving together.

- 10. There are but few long notes in any tune but what might be swelled with propricty. The swell is one of the greatest ornaments to youl music if rightly performed. All long notes of the bass should be swelled if the other parts are singing short or quick notes at the same time. The swell should be struck plain upon the first part of the note, increase to the middle, and then decrease softly like an echo, or die away like the sound of a bell.
- 11. All notes (except some in syncopation) should be called plain by their proper names, and fairly articulated; and in applying the words great care should be taken that they be properly pronounced and not torn to pieces between the teeth, nor forced through the nose. Let the mouth be freely opened, but not too wide, the teeth a little asunder, and let the sound come from the lungs and be entirely formed where they should be only distinguished, viz. on the end of the tongue. The superiority of vocal to instrumental music, is that while one only pleases the ear, the other informs the understanding.
- 12. When notes occur one directly above another, (cailed choosing notes,) and there are several singers on the part where they are, let two sing the lower note while one does the upper note, and in the same proportion to any other number.

13. Your singers should not join in concert until each class can sing their own part correctly.

14. Learners should beat time by a pendulum, or with their teacher, until they can beat regular time, before they attempt to beat and sing both at once, because it perplexes them to heat, name time, and sound the notes at the same time, until they have acquired a knowledge of each by itself.

15. Too long singing at a time injures the lungs.

16. Some teachers are in the habit of singing too long at a time with their pupils. It is better to sing but only eight or ten tunes at a lesson, or at one time, and inform the learners the nature of the pieces and the manner in which they should be performed, and continue at them until they are understood, than to shun over forty or fifty in one evening, and at the end of a quarter of schooling perhaps few beside the requires emphasis, or how to give the pitch of any tune which they have been learning unless some one inform them. It is easy to name the notes of a tune, but it requires attention and practice to sing them correctly.

17. Learners should not be confined too long to the parts that suit their voices best, but should try occasionally the different parts, as it tends greatly to improve the voice and give them a knowledge of the connexion of the parts and of harmony as well as mejody.* The gentlemen can change from bass to tenor, or from tenor to bass, and the ladies from treble to tenor, &c.

18. Learners should understand the tunes well by note before they attempt to sing them to verses of poetry.

19. If different verses are applied to a piece of music while learning, it will give the learners a more complete knowledge of the tune than they can have by confining it always to the same words. Likewise applying different tunes to the same words will have a great tendency to remove the embarrassment created by considering every short tune as a set piece to certain words or hymns.

20. When the key is transposed, there are flats or sharps placed on the stave, and when the mood of time is changed, the requisite characters are placed upon the stave.

21. There should not be any noise indulged while singing, (except the music,) as a destroys entirely the beauty of harmony, and renders the performance very difficult. (especially to new beginners;) and if it is designedly promoted is nothing less than a proof of disrespect in the singers to the exercise, to themselves who occasion it, and to the Author of our existence.

22. The apogiatura is placed in some tunes which may be used with propriety by a good voice; also the trill over some notes; but neither should be attempted by any one until he can perform the tune well by plain notes, (as they add nothing to the time.) Indeed no one can add much to the beauty of a piece by using what are generally termed graces, unless they are in a manner natural to their voice.

23. When learning to sing, we should endeavour to cultivate the voice so as to make it soft, smooth, and round, so that when numbers are performing in concert, there may on each part (as near as possible) appear to be but one uniform voice. Then, instead of confused jargon, it will be more like the smooth vibrations of the violin, or the soft breathings of the German flute. Yet how hard it is to make some be-

An excessive use of ardent spirits will speedily ruin the best voice. A frequent use of some acid drink, such as purified cider, vinegar, and water mixed and sweetened a little with honey, or sugar with a little black or cayenne repper, wine, and loaf sugar, &c. if used spariogly, are very music only. aeve soft singing is the most melodious, when at the same time loud singing is more like the hootings of the midnight bird than refined music.

24. The most important ornament in singing is strict decorum, with a heart deeply incressed with the great truth we utter while singing the lines, aiming at the glory of God and the editication of one another.

25. All affectation should be banished, for it is disgusting in the performance of sacred music, and contrary to that solemnity which should accompany an exercise so near akin to that which will through all eternity engage the attention of those who walk in climes of bliss,

26. The nearest perfection in singing we arrive at, is to pronounce the words* and

In singing there are a few words which should vary a little from common pronunciation, such as end in i and y; and these should vary two ways. If singers when performing a piece of music could be as much captivated with the words and sounds as the author of the music is when compasing it, the foregoing directions would be almost useless; they would pronounce, accent, swell, sing loud and soft where the words require it, make suitable gestrace, and add every other necessary grace.

27. The great Jehovah, who implanted in our nature the noble faculty of vocal performance, is jealous of the use to which we apply our talents in that particular, lest we use them in a way which does not tend to glorify his name. We should therefore endeavour to improve the talent given us, and try to sing with the spirit and with the understanding, making melody in our hearts to the Lord.

These should partake of the vowel O, rather than EE, and be sounded semewhat like sanctifay, justifay, glorifay, &c. It would indeed be difficult to describe this exactly; however, the extreme should be avoided on both sides.

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS,

FROM THE COLUMBIAN HARMONY.

There is a charm, a power, that sways the breast, Bilds every passion revel or be still; inspires with rage, or all your cares dissolves; Can soothe distraction, and almost despair: That power is music.

so great is the empire of music over all the faculties of human nature, and so loud nave been the logenious in celebrating its power and praises, that they have left nothing in heaven, not at all in the air, sea, or no the earth, but what in excess of fancy or morit they have subjected to its dominion for the better. Its harmony ravishes the so- and carries it beyond itself; helps, elevates, and extends it. It exterminates fear an ury, whates cruely, alleviates sorrow and heaviness, and nuterly destroys spleen at a treel. In short, music cures disease, sweetens the labourer's toil, ard adds new rout, age to the soldier.

Divine music must be allowed by all who practise it to be an emanation from the

When I consider upon the divine nature and power of music on the affections, I am wrapped up in admiration, love, and praise, and cannot but adore the Almighty Giver of so good, and adjorious a gift; and that it has pleased him to bestow upon me and my fellow beings faculties to sing his praise. It is in the performance of secred music that we assimilate ourselves to the angelic choirs of glory, more nearly than in any other employment upon earth besides. Most of the arts and employments of this life will accompany us no farther than the grave; but this will continue an employment with the redeemed of God while eternal ages roll. It had its origin in God, and from God it was communicated to angels and men. Long before this world's foundations were laid, angels and archangels sang their grateful praises to the eternal Jehovah, encircling his throno and infinitely exulting. When God had ereated this lower world and all its appeadages, the angelic hosts and seraphim above, like bright morning stars shining with the nost screen brilliancy, sang together; and the arctangles, the chief cereption s

Since then the cherubim and scraphim of heaven sing their ceaseless lays to their Creator, and consider music as one of the most noble and grand vehicles for conveying their love to him, shall man, mortal man, presume to look with haughty scorn, derision, and contempt upon that science which dignifies those exalted beings above? Ungrateful to God, and unmindful of his transcendent privilege, must be be that is possessed of the voice of melody, who delights not to celebrate the praises of the Most High, by singing hymns and anthems to his name. When amazing pity had seized the compassionate breast of our Redcemer; when it had prevailed upon him to resign his royal diadem of glory and robes of light into the hands of his eternal Father, with filial submission and humility; when he condescended to leave the throngs of adoring angels who cluster around the throne of God; and when he voluntarily left the realms of bliss that he might veil his divinity in humble clay, and become the sufferer for all sin against an incensed God, to appease his flaming wrath for a wretched world of men; I say well might shining legions of angels descend through the portals of the skies at his nativity, at so amazing condescension, and proclaim the joyful newa to man, that a God on earth was born, and sing while hovering over the Redeemer's humble manger, and around the vigilant shepherd, "Glory to God in the highest, peace on earth, and good will towards men." Before his unparalleled sufferings, while in humble state, he rode upon the foal of an ass towards Jerusalem, well might his followers strew the way with their clothes and branches of palm trees, and shout, "Hosanna! blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!" After he had administered his memorable supper to his disciples he sang with them a hymn, as the last consolation to them till he should have passed through the gloomy vale of death and all its horrors.

Soon after his agonizing passion, while the infernal powers roared their leud acclamations through the gloom of hell, and black despart triumplaing at the bloody horrid deed, he breaks the bands of death asunder, and rose triumplant, and was escorted by myriads of hymning angels to the bosom of his l'ather God, from wnose naturnal hands he again received his duelem of glory and robes of eternal effligence.

there to be our Advocate, Mediator, and Redeemer, until he shall come the second time from heaven, not as before in humility, but with all the grandeur of heaven, with the shout of the archangel and with the trump of God, to judge the world; and till then, and eternally after, the choirs of glory will ever worship him with songs of endless praises, and sing, "Hallelujah, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth, and he shall reign for ever and ever, King of kings and Lord of lords! Hallelujah!" "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain," shall the saints of glory for ever sing, "and nath reducemed us to God by his blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Blessing, and honour, glory, and power be unto him that sitteth upon the throng, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever! Amen." No art in nature is better calculated to interest the feelings and command the passions of the soul than sacred music when well performed. It raises within the soul a kind of scraphic pathos, and almost transports the soul to the paradise of God, far, far beyond the contaminations of this gross sphere of nature, to a sphere of elevated glory. Were the soul to expand her wings, and take her flight to the realms of bliss. what would she behold among those celestial choirs less than ten thousand times ten thousand saints and angels, clad in robes of purest white, and interstreaked with shining gold, and exulting in the all-glorious praises of God. What would be her raptures to hear the chief cherubim of heaven sweeping the cerulean strings of their golden lyres symphoniously, and then the whole chorus of heaven, both vocal and instrumental, to fall in with them in one full burst of heavenly harmony! she would not behold a single being in so august a throng as millions, indifferent in the praises of God, nor hear one languid tone from the meanest seraph's tongue; if such be the harmony of heaven, let it raise the flame of emulation in every bosom to imitate the blest above. Let each singer perform in church properly, enchoired, and in the manner that it ought to be done, and grand effects will be the unavoidable result, if the music itself be good. By hearing good music well performed, we are ready to say, "O! ye enchanting, cestatic, and delightful sons and daughters of harmony! O! that I could take the wings of the morning, and soar aloft with your sublime strains to the mansions of glory."

Incre are seven plans of notation used now in various parts of the world, which | 5, 6, 7. Spanish, perhaps, faw, sole, law, bae, doe, naw, me: -All repeating the the peasantry.) and in some parts of the United States, the numerical 1, 2, 3, 4, may wish to use them in learning to sing.

transpositions, remembering that the major or sharp key-note faw, is called doc; sing the scale thus, doe, rac, me, &c., ascending; and doe, see, law, &c. dcscending: numerical sing 1, 2, 3, &c. ascending; and 1, 7, 6, &c. descending. For singing seven syllables Italian and the numerical, the transposition tables are generally written thus:

But if B he flat, the place for doe or I is on.....F If B. E. and A be flat, the place for doe or 1 is on.....

If F, C, G, and D he sharp, the place for doe or 1 is on.....

> In singing the seven syllables in our patent-note books, no regard is had to the shape of the notes. but name them as laid down in the rule and examples; and in singing numerals, call the major key doe, or faw, 1, and the other notes by the numerical distance they are from the major key; and if you wish to use the other plans, sing as herein directed.

> Some contend that no one can learn to sing correctly without using the seven syllables, Although I have no objections to the seven syllable plan, I differ a little with such in opinion, for I have taught the four syllables patent notes, the Italian seven syllables, and the numerals also, and in twenty five years' experience, have always found my patent note pupils to learn as fast, and sing as correct as auy. Consequently I think that the main thing is to get good teachers, who understand the science of music woll, and teach it faithfully, and who always keep good order In their schools; and that the various plans of notation or soluziation may be considered more a matter of taste than necessity

PART I.

JUNTAINING

MOST OF THE PLAIN AND EASY TUNES COMMONLY USED IN TIME OF DIVINE WORSHIP.

- 2 Let not conscience make you linger. Nor of fitness fondly dream, All the fitness he requireth, Is to feel your need of him; This he gives you; "Tis the Spirit's rising beam.
- 4 Come, ye weary, hcavy laden,
 Lost and ruin'd by the fall;
 If you tarry till you're better,
 You will never come at all:
 Not the righteous,
 Sinners Jesus came to call.
- 5 View him prostrate in the garden, On the ground your Saviour lies On the boody tree behold him

- Hear him cry before he dies—
 "It is finish'd!"
 Sinners, will not this suffice!
- 6 Lo! th' incarnate God ascending, Pleads the nicrit of his blood; Venture on him, venture wholly, Let no other trust intruds: None but Jesus Can do helpless sinners good.
- 7 Saints and angels, join'd in concert, Sing the praises of the Lamb; While the bliesful seats of heaven Sweetly echo with his name Hallelujah! Sinners here may eing the same

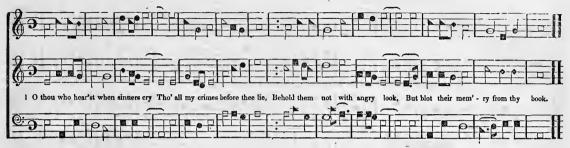

- Hath like a mountain rose;
 I know his courts, I'll enter in Whatever may oppose.
- 3 Prostrate I'll lie before his throne, And there my guilt confess, I'll tell him I'm a wretch undone Without his sovereign grave

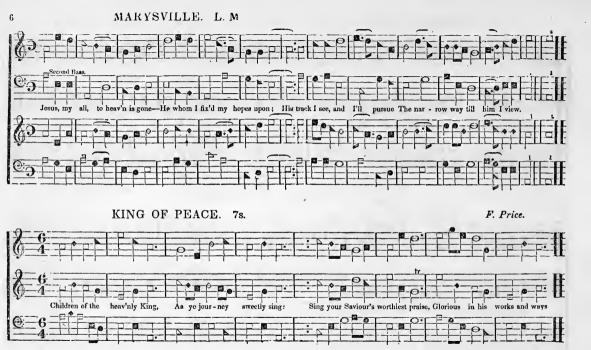

- 4 I'll to the gracious King approach, Whose sceptre pardon gives; Perhaps he may command my touch, And then the suppliant lives.
- 5 Perhaps he may admit my plea, Perhaps will hear my prayer; But if I perish, I will pray, And perish only there

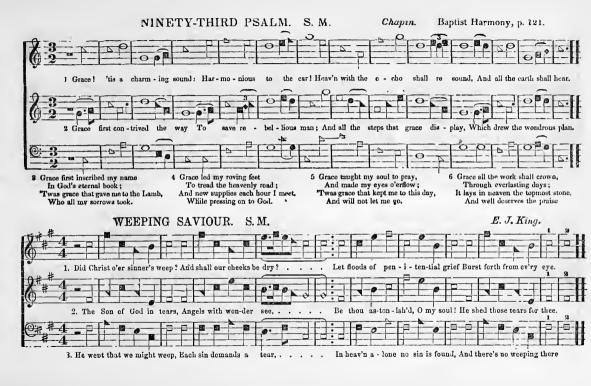

- 6 I can but perish if I go, I am resolv'd to try; For if I stay away, I know I must for ever die.
- 7 But if I die with mercy sought, When I the King have treed, This were to die (delaghtfu) thought As sinner never due.

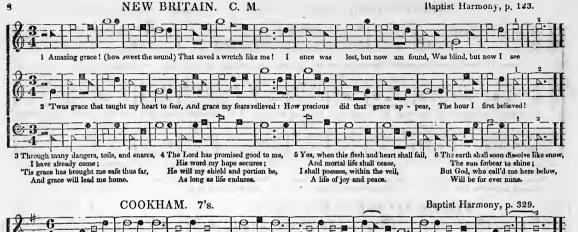

RESTORATION. 8, 7.

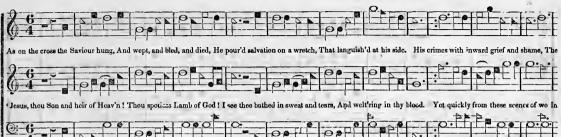

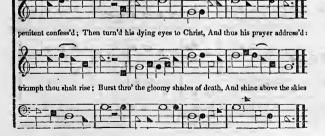

"Amid the glories of that world, Dear Saviour, think on me, And in the victories of thy death, Let me a sharer be." His prayer the dying Jesus hears, And instantly replies, To-day thy parting sou shall be With me in Paradise.

- Must I not stem the flood
- Is this vilo world a friend to grace, To help me on to God?
- Increase my courage, Lord;
- I'll bear the toil, endure the pain, Supported by thy word.
- Shall conquer though they die They see the triumph from afar,
- And seize it with their eye.
- And all thy armies shine
- In robes of victory through the skies The glory shall be thine.

- 3 This is the way I long have sought, And mourn'd because I found it not; My guef a lourder long has been, Because I was not sayed from sin.
- The more I strove against its power, I felt its weight and guilt the more; Till late I heard my Saviour say,
- "Come Lither, soul, I AM THE WAY."
- 5 Lo! glad I come, and thou, blest Lamb, Shalt take me to thee, whose I am; Nothing but sin have I to give, Nothing but love shall I receive.
- 6 Then will I tell to sinners round,
 What a dear Saviour I have found
 I'll point to thy redeeming blood.
 And say "Behold the way to God"

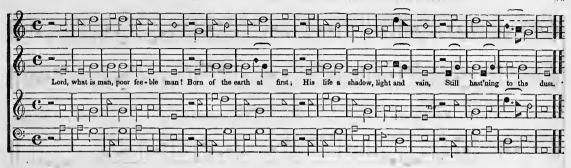

My shield and hiding-place; My never-failing treasury, fill'd With boundless stores of grace.

3 Dear name! the rock on which I build, '4 Jesus! my shepherd, husband, friend, My prophet, priest, and king; My Lord, my life, my way, my end, Accept the praise I bring.

5 Weak is the effort of my heart, And cold my warmest thought; But when I see thee as thou art, I'll praise thee as I ought.

6 Till then I would thy love proclsim With every fleeting breath: And mey the music of thy name Refresh my soul in death

DEVOTION. L. M.

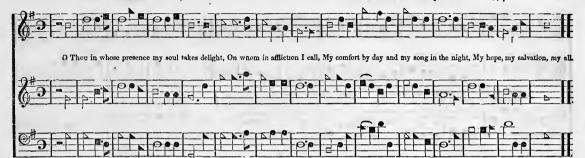

- 2 Yet do I find my heart inclined To do my work below: When Christ doth call, I trust I shall
- Be ready then to go.
 I leave you all, both great and small,
 In Christ's encircling areas,
- Who can you save from the cold grave,
- 3 I trust you'll pray, both night and day, And keep your garments white,
- For you and me, that we may be The children of the light.
- If you die first, anon you must, The will of God be done
- I hope the Lord will you reward, With an immortal crown

- 4 If I'm call'd home whilst I am gone, Indulge no tears for me;
 - I hope to sing and praise my King, To all cornity.
 - Millions of years over the spheres Shall pass in sweet repose,
 - While beauty bright unto my sight
 Thy sacred sweets disclose.
- 5 I long to go, then farewell wo, My soul will be at rest; No more shall I complain or sigh, But taste the heavenly feast.
- O may we meet, and be complete, And long together dwell, And serve the Lord with one accord
- And serve the Lord with one accor And so, dear friends, farewell.

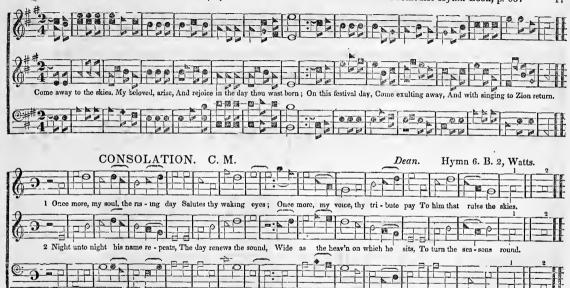

- 2 Where dost thou at moontide resort with thy sheep, To feed on the pasture of love? For why in the valley of death should I weep— Alone in the wilderness rove?
- 3 O why should I wander an alien from thee, Or cry in the desert for bread? My foes would reicice when my sorrows they see, And smile at the tears I have shed,
- 4 Ye daughters of Zion, declare, have you seen The Star that on Israel shone; Say if in your tonts my Beloved hath been And where with his flock he hath gone.

- 5 This is my Beloved, his form is divine,
 His vestments shed odours around;
 The locks on his head are as grapes on the vine,
 When autumn with plenty is crown'd.
- 6 The roses of Sharon, the lilies that grow
 In vales on the banks of the streams;
 His checks in the beauty of excellence blow,
 His eve all invitingly beams.
- 7 His voice, as the sound of a duleimer sweet, Is heard through the shadow of death, The cedars of Lebanon bow at his feet, The air is perfumed with his breath.

- 8 His lips as a fountain of righteousness flow, That waters the garden of grace, From which their salvation the gentiles shall know And bask in the smiles of his face.
- 9 Love sits on his eyelid and scatters delight, Through all the bright mansions on high; Their faces the cherubim veil in his sight, And tremble with fulness of joy.
- 10 He looks, and ten thousands of angets rejoice, And myriads wait for his word; He speaks, and eternity, fill'd with his voice. Re-echees the craise of her Lord

- 2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining; Low lies his bod, with the beasts of the stall; Angels adore him, in slumbers reclining, Wiso men and shepherds before him do fall. Unishest and best &c.
- 3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion, Odours of Eden, and offerings divine, Gens from the mountain, and pearls from the ocean, Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine? Urichtest and best. &c.
- 4 Vainly we offer each ample obtation,
 Vainly with gold we his favour secure,
 Richer by far is the heart's adoration:
 Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor
 Brightest and seed. Ac-

- 8 'Tis he supports my mortal framo, My tongue shall speak his praise;
- My sins would rouse his wrath to flame, And yet his wrath delays.
- 4 On a poor worm thy pow'r might tread, And I could ne'er withstand,
- Thy justice might have crush'd me desd, But mercy held thine hand.
- 5 A thousand wretched souls are fled Since the last setting sun,
- And yet thou length'nest out my thread, And yet my moments run.
- 6 Dear God, let all my nours to thine. Whilst I enjoy the light.
- Then shall my sun in smiles decline. And bring a pleasant night

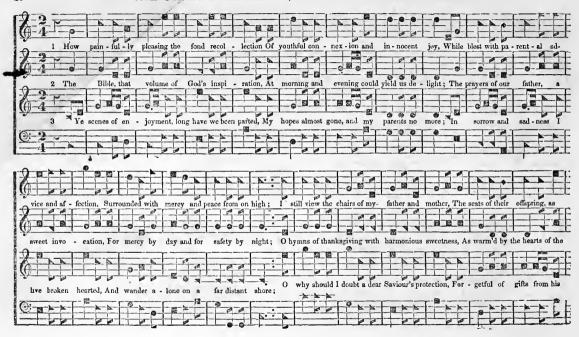

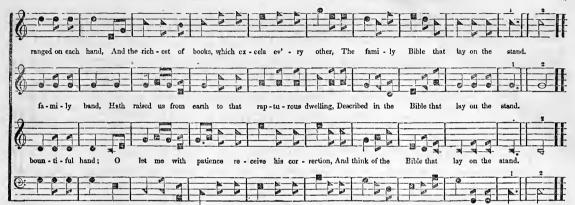

- 3 I wish it was with me now, as in the days of old, When the glorious light of Jesus was flowing in my soul; But now I am distressed, and no relief can find, With a hard deceifful heart, and a wretched wandering mind.
- 4 It is great pride and passion, beset me on my way, So I am fill'd with folly, and so neglect to pray; While others run rejoicing, and seem to lose no time, I am so weak I stumble, and so I'm left behind.
- 5 I read that peace and happiness meet Christians in their way. That bear their cross with meckness, and don't neglect to pray But I, a thousand objects beset me in my way So I am fill'd with folly, and so neglect to pray.

[•] This song was composed by the Rev. B. Hicks, (a Baptist minister of South Carolina,) and sent to his wife while he was confined in Tennessee by a few of which he afterwards recovered

- 4 Blest Bible! the light and the guide of the stranger, With it I seem circled with parents and friends; Thy kind admonition shall guide me from danger; On thee my last lingering hope then depends. Hope wakens to vigour and rises to glory; I'll hasten and fice to the promised land, And for refuge lay hold on the hope set before me, Reveal'd in the Bible that lay on the stand.
- 5 Hail, rising the brightest and best of the morning, The star which has guided my parents safe home; The beam of thy glory, my pathway adorning, Shall scatter the darkness and brighten the gloom.

- As the old Eastern sages to worship the stranger Did hasten with ecctasy to Canaan's land, I'll bow to adore him, not in a low manger,— He's seen in the Bible that lay on the stand.
- 6 Though age and misfortune press hard on my feelings, I'll fiee to the Bible, and trust in the Lord; Though darkness should cover his merciful dealings, My soul is still cheer'd by his heavenly word. And now from things earthly my soul is removing I soon shall glory with heaven's bright bands, And in rapture of joy be forever adoring. The God of the Bible that lay on the stand.

So fades the love-ly, blooming flow'r, Frail, smiling solace of an hour, So soon our transient comforts fly, And pleasure only blooms to die.

CHARLESTOWN. 8, 7.

MEAR. C. M.

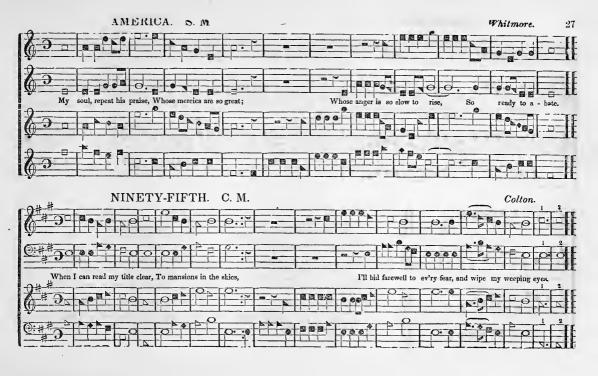

Wm. Walker.

2 Though in distant lands we sigh, Parch'd beneath a hostile sky, Though the deep between us rolls Friendship shall unite our souls, And in fancy's wide domain, Oft shall we all meet again. 3 When our burnish'd locks are gray, Thinn'd by many a toil-spent day, When around the youthful pine Moss shall creep and ivy twine; Long may the loved bow'r remain, Ere we all shall moet again. 4 When the dreams of life are fled, When its wasted lamps are dead, When in cold oblivion's shade, Beauty, fame, and wealth are laid, Where immortal spirits regn. There may we all meet agun.

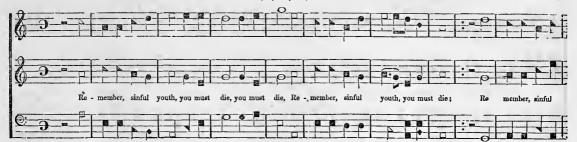

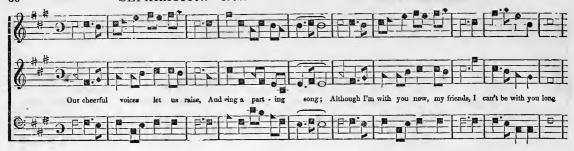

- 3 What have I gain'd by sin, he said, But hunger, shame, and fear? My father's house abounds with bread, Whilst I am starving here.
- 4 I'll go and tell him all I've done, Fall down before his face, Not worthy to be called his son, I'll ask a servant's place.
- 5 He saw his son returning back, He look'd, he ran, he smiled, And threw his arms sround the neck Of his rebellious child.

- 6 Father, I've sinn'd, but O forgive. And thus the father said; Rejoice, my house! my son's alive, For whom I mourn'd as dead.
- 7 Now let the 'sted calf be slain, Go sprud the news abroad, My son was dead, but lives again, Was lost, but now is found.
- 8 "Tis thus the Lord himself reveals, To call poor sinners home, More than the father's love he feels, And bids the sinner come

I When the midnight cry began, O what lamentation, ? Lo, the bridegroom is at hand, Surcly all the waiting bend Thousands sleeping in their sins, Neglecting their salvation. Who will kindly treat nim ? Will now go forth to meet him.

2 Some, indeed, did wait awhile, And shone without a rival; 7 Many souls who thought they'd light, Now against the Bridgeroom fight. But they spent their seeming oil Long since the last revival. O, when the scene was closed. And so they stand opposed.

3 While the wise are passing by, With all their lamps prepared, Give us of your oil, they cry, If any can be spared. Others trimm'd their former snuff, O, is it not amazing! Those conclude they've light enough, And think their lamps are blazing.

4 Foolish virgins! do you think Our Bridegroom's a deceiver ? Then may you pass your lives away, And think to sleep for ever ; But we by faith do see his face. On whom we have believed; If there's deception in the case, "Tis you that are deceived,

5 And now the door is open 'ide, And Caristians are invive, And virgina wise compass the bride, March to the place appointed. Who do you think is now a guest? Yea, listen, carnal lovers, 'Tis those in wedding garments dress'd: They cease from sin for ever.

6 The door is shut, and they within. 8 Virgina wise, I pray draw near, They're freed from every danger; They reign with Christ, for sinners slain, Who oneo lay in a manger; They join with saints and angels too In songs of love and favour;

Glory, honour, praise and power, To God and Lamb for ever.

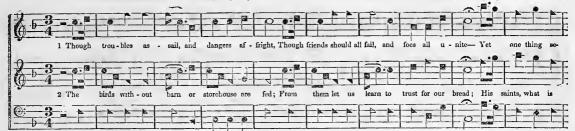

7 The foolish virgins are without; The sentence, Go ye cursed-For want of oil they're out-away From Christ they then are forced. No more on earth with saints to join In sharing of my favour; Although you did my children blind, Mourn with the damn'd for ever.

He is your friend, you need not fear, O, why not seek his favour ? He speaks to you in whispers sweet, In words of consolation: By grace in him you stand complete, He is your great salvation.

And listen to your Saviour;

9 Dying sinners, will you come, The Saviour now invites you; His bleeding wounds proclaim there's Let nothing then affright you- from, Room for you, and room for me, And room for coming sinners: Salvation pours a living stream For you and all believers.

10 When earth and sea shall be no more. And all their glory perish, When sun and moon shall cease to shine. And stars at midnight languish . When Gabriel's trump shall sound aloud, To call the slumb'ring nations, Then, Christians, we shall see our God The God of our saivation

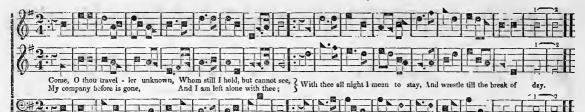

- We may, like the ships, by tempests be toss'd On perilous deeps, but cannot be lost: Though Satan enrages the wind and the tide. The promise engages the Lord will provide
- 4 His call we obey, like Abram of old, Not knowing our way, but faith makes us bold; For though we are strangers, we have a good guide, And trust, in all dangers, the Lord will provide.

- 5 When Satan appears to stop up our path, And fill us with fears, we triumph by faith; He cannot take from us, though oft he has tried, This heart-cheering promise, the Lord will provide
- 6 He tells us we're weak, our hope is in vain: The good that we seek we ne'er shall obtain; But when such suggestions our spirits have plied, This answers all questions, the Lord will provide.
- 7 No strength of our own, or goodness we claim; Yet since we have known the Saviour's great name, In this our strong tow'r for safety we hide; The Lord is our pow'r, the Lord will provide.
- 8 When life sinks apace, and death is in view, This word of his grace shall comfort us through: No fearing or doubting with Christ on our side, We hope to die shouting, the Lord will provide

- 2 I need not tell thee who I am; My misery and sin declare;
- Thyself hast call'd me by my name,
 Look on thy hands and read it there.
 But who, I ask thee, who art thou?
 Tell me thy name, and tell me now.
- 3 In vain thou strugglest to get free, I never will unloose my hold; Art thou the man who died for me? The secret of thy love unfold: Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
- 4 Wilt thou not yet to me reveal
 Thy new, unutterable name?
 Tell me, I still beseech thee, tell;
 To know it now resolved I am:
 Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
 Till I thy name, thy nature know.
- 5 What though my shrinking flesh com-And murmur to contend so long, [plain, I rise superior to my pain;

When I am weak, then I am strong! And when my all of strength shall fail, I shall with the God-man prevail.

This is my dear de - lightful theme, That Je-sus died for me

- 2 I'm call'd to contend with the powers of darkness. And many sore conflicts I have to pass through; O Jesus, be with me in every battle,

 - And help me my enemies all to subdue; If thou, gracious Lord, will only be with me.
 - To aid and direct me, then all will be right:
 - Apoliyon, with all his powerful forces,
 - In thy name and thy swength I shall soon but to flight.

- 3 And when I must cross the cold stream of Jordan,
 - I'll bid all my sorrows a final adieu,
 - And hasten away to the land of sweet Canaan, Where, Christians, I hope I shall there meet with you.
 - That rest into which my soul shall then enter, Is perfectly glorious, and never shall end-
 - A rest of exemption from warfare and labour, A rest in the bosom of lesus, my friend.

- 4 And more than exemption from fighting and Lardship My gracious Redeemer will grant unto me ;
 - A portion of bliss he has promised to give me, And true to that promise he surely will be.
 - Yes, I shall receive and always inherit
 - A happy reception and truly divine.
 - For which all the praises and glory, my Saviour Are due unto thee, and shall ever no thus.

RESIGNATION. C. M.

- 2. When I walk thro' the shades of death Thy presence is my stay; One word of thy supporting breath Drives all my fears away. Thy hand, in sight of all my fees, Doth still my table spread; My cup with blessings overflows, Thine oil anoints my head.
- 3. The sure provisions of my God Attend me all my days; O may thy house be mine abode, And all my work be praise! There would I find a settled rest, (While others go and come,) No more a stranger, nor a guest; But like a child at home.

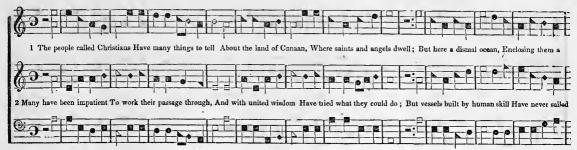

It cannot in Eden be found,
Nor yet in Paradise lost;
grows on Immanuel's ground,
And Jenus dear blood it did cost.

3 My friends once so dear unto me, Our souls so united in love: Where Jesus is gone we shall be In yonder blest mansions above.

4 With Jesus we ever shall reign,
And all his bright glory shall see,
Singing hallelujahs, Amen
Amen? even so let it ba

- 3 The everlasting gospel
 Hath launch'd the deep at last Behold the sails expanded
 Around the tow'ring mast!
 Along the deck in order,
 The joyful sailora stand,
 Crying, "Ho!—here we go
 To Immanuel's happy land
- 4 We're now on the wide ocean
 We bid the world farewell!
 And though where we shall anchor
 No human tongue can tell;
 About our future destiny
 There need be no debate,
 While we ride on the tide,
 With our Captain and his Mate.
- 5 To those who are spectators
 What anguish must ensue,
 To hear their old companions
 Bid them a last adieu!
 The pleasures of your paradise
 No more our hearts invite;
 We will sail—you may rail,
 We shall soon be out of sight.

In order, peace, and love ;--

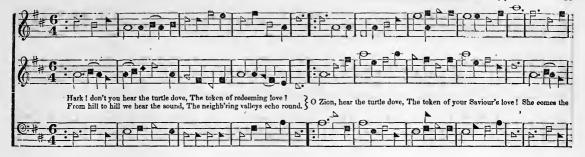

The wind is in our favour,

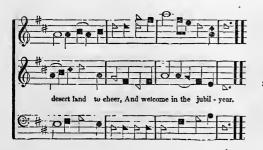

6 The passengers united

How swiftly do we move!
Though tempests may assail us,
And raging billows roar,
We will sweep through the deep,
Till we reach fair Canaan's shore.

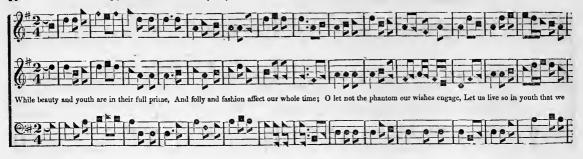

- 2 The winter's past, the rain is o'er, We feel the chilling winds no more; The epring is come; how sweet the view, All things appear divinely new. On Zion's mount the watchmen cry, "The resurrection's drawing nigh?" Behold, the nations from abroad, Are flecking to the mount of God.
- 3 The trumpet sounds, both far and nigh; O sinners, turn! why will ye die! How can you spurn the gospel charms? Enlist with Christ, gird on your arms. These are the days that were foretold, In ancient times, by prophets old: They long'd to see this glorious light, But all have died without the sight.
- 4 The latter days on us have come,
 And fugitives are flocking home;
 Behold them crowd the gospet road,
 All pressing to the mount of God.
 O yes! and I will join that band,
 Now hose's my heart, and here's my hand
 With Satan's band no more I'll be,
 But fight for Christ and liberty.
- 5 His banner soon will be unfurl'd,
 And he will come to judge the world;
 On Zion's mountain we shall stand,
 In Canaan's fair, ceiestial land.
 When sun and moon shall darken'd be,
 And flames consume the land and sea,
 When worlds on worlds together blaze,
 We'll shout, and lowed nosannar rame.

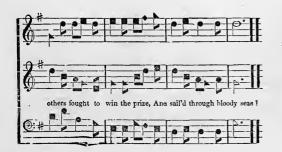

- 2 The vain and the young may attend us a while, But let not their flatt'ry our prudence beguite; Let us covet those charms that shall never docay Nor listen to all that deceivers can say.
- 3 I sigh not for beauty, nor languish for wealth, But grant me, kind Providence, virtue and health; Then richer than kings, and far happier than they, My days shall pass swiftly and sweetly away.
- 4 For when age steals on me, and youth is no more, And the moralist time shakes his glass at my-door.

- What pleasure in beauty or wealth can I find? My beauty, my wealth, is a aweet peace of mind.
- 5 That peace! I'll preserve it as pure as 'twas given Shall last in my bosom an earnest of heaven; For virtue and wisdom can warm the cold scene, And sixty can flourish as gay as sixteen.
- 6 And when I the burden of life shall have borne, And death with his sickle shall cut the ripe com, Reascend to my God without murmur or sigh, I'll bless the kind summons, and lie down and die.

- 3 Are there no focs for me to face ?

 Must I not stem the flood?

 Is this vile world a friend to grace,

 To help me on to God?
- 4 Sure I must fight if I would reign;

 Increase my courage, Lord;
 I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
 Supported by thy word.
- 5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war, Shall conquer though they die; They see the triumph from afar, And seize it with their eye.
- 6 When that illustrious day shall rise, And all thine armies shine In robes of vict'ry through the skics, The glory shall be thine

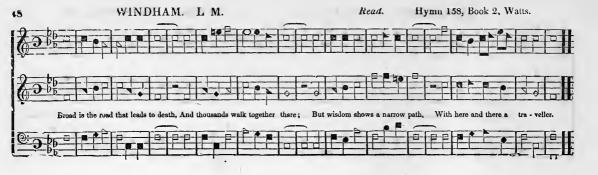

- We lay our garments by,Upon our beds to rest;So death will soon disrobe us all,Of what we here possess.
- 3 Lord, keep us safe this night, Secure from all our fears: May angels guard us while we sleep, Till morning light appears.
- 4 And when we early rise,
 And view th' unwearied sun,
 May we set out to win the prize,
 And after glory run.
- 5 And wher, our days are past, And we from time teniove, O may we in thy bosom rest, The bosom of thy love.

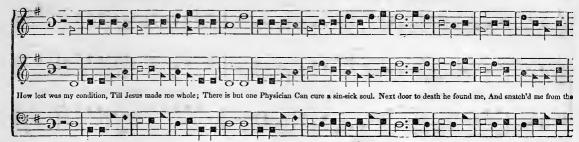

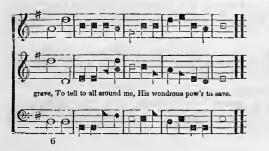

FAIRFIELD. C M.

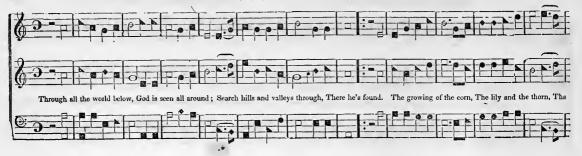

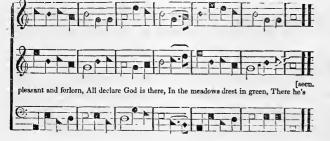

- 2 'The worst of all diseases
 Is light compared with sin;
 On every part it seizes,
 But rages most within:
 'Tis palsy, plague, and fever,
 And madness, all combin'd;
 And none but a believer
 The least relief can find.
- 3 From men great skill professing,
 I thought a cure to gain;
 But this proved more distressing,
 And added to my pain;
 Some said that nothing ail'd me,
 Some gave me up for lost;
 Thus every refuge fail'd me,
 And all my hopes were cross'd.

- 4 At length this great Physician.
 (How matchloss is his grace.)
 Accepted my petition,
 And undertook my case;
 First gave me sight to view him,
 For sin my eyes had seal'd;
 Then bid me look unto him—
 I look'd, and I was heal'd.
- 5 A dying, risen Jesus. Seen by the eye of faith, At once from anguish frees us, And saves the soul from death; Come, then, to this Physician, His help he'll freety give; He makes no hard condition, "Tis only Look and live.

- 2 See springs of water rise, Fountains flow, rivers run; The mist below the skies Hides the sun; Then down the rain doth pour The ocean it doth rear, And dash against the shore, All to praise, in their lays, That God that ne'er declines His desirns.
- 3 The sun, to my surprise, Speaks of God as he flies; The comets in their blaze Give him praise; The shining of the stars.

The moon as it appears,
His sacred name declares;
See them shine, all divine!
The shades in silence prove God's above.

4 Then let my station be Here on earth, as I see The sacred One in Three All agree; Through all the world is wada, The forest and the glade; Nor let me be sfraid. Though I dwell or, the nill, Since nature's works declare God is there

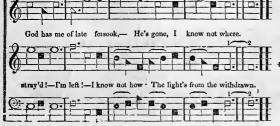

- 3 Once I could joy the saints to meet, To me they were most dear;
- I hen could stoop to wash their feet,
- I t now I meet them as the rest, and with them joyless stay;
- A. / conversation's spiritless, Or else I've naught to say.
- 4 I once could mourn o'er dying men, And long'd their souls to win:
- I travail'd for their poor children, And warn'd them of their sin: But now my heart's so careless grown,
- Although they're drown'd in vice,

 My bowels o'er them cease to yearn—
- My tears have left mine eyes

- 5 I forward go in duty's way, But can't perceive him there; Then backwards on the road I stray, But cannot find him there: On the left liand, where he doth work, Annong the wicked crew.
 - And on the right, I find him not, Among the favour'd few.
- 6 What shall I do?—shall I lie down, And sink in deep despair? Will he for ever wear a frown, Nor hear my feeble pray'r?
 - No: he will put his strength in mo, He knows the way I've stroll d And when I'm tried sufficiently.

I shall come forth as gold.

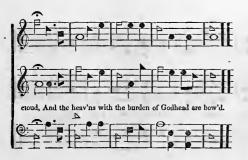

- 2 I late estranged from Jesus wander'd,
 An-thought each dang'rous poison good,
 But h in mercy long pursued me,
 Wi cries of his redeeming blood.
 Thoug a liko Bartimeus I was blinde.,
 In naturo's darkest night conceal'd,
 But Jesus' love removed my blindness,
 And he his pardoning rance reveal'd.
- 3 Now I will praise him, he spares me, And with his people sing aloud, Though opposed, and sinners mock me, In repturous sones I'll praise my God.

- By faith I view the heavenly concert, They sing high strains of Jesus' love O! with desire my soul is longing, And fain would be with Christ shove.
- 4 That blessed day is fast approaching.
 When Christ in glorious clonds will come,
 With sounding trumps and shouts of angels.
 To call each faithful spirit home.
 There's Abraham, Isaac, holy prophets,
 And all the saints at God's right hand,
 There hosts of angels join in concert,
 Shout as they reach the promised land.

- 2 The glory! the glory! around him we pour'd
 - Mighty hosts of the angels that wait on the Lord;

And the glorified saints and the martyrs are there,

And there all who the palm wreaths of victory wear.

- 3 The trumpet! the trumpet! the dead have all heard,

 Lo! the depths of the stone-cover'd charnel
 - Lo! the depths of the stone-cover'd charned are stirr'd;

From the sea, from the earth, from the south, from the north,

And the vast generations of man are come forth.

4 The judgment! the judgment! the thronce are all set,

Where the Lamb and the white-vested elders are met;

There all flesh is at once in the sight of the Lord,

And the doom of eternity hangs on his

5 O mercy! O mercy! look down from

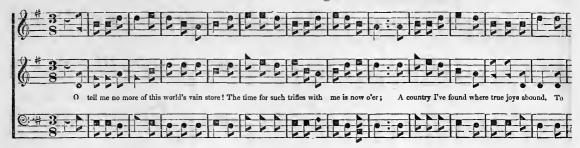

Great Creator, on us, thy sad children, with love;

When beneath to their darkness the wicked are driv'n.

May our justified souls find a welcome us heav'n.

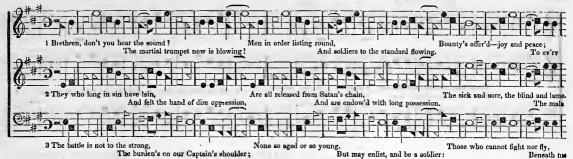

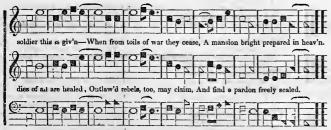

- 2 No mortal doth know what Christ will bestow, What life, strength and comfort! go after him, go! Lo, onward I move, to see Christ above, None guesses how wondrous my journey will prove.
- 3 Great spoils I shall win, from death, hell, and sin; Midst outward affliction shall feel Christ within; And still, which is best, I in his dear breast, As at the beginning, find pardon and rest.
- 4 When I am to die, receive me, I'll cry, For Jesus has lov'd me, I cannot tell why; But this I do find, we two are so join'd, He'll not live in glory and leave no behind.
- 5 This blessing is mine, through favour divine, And O, my dear Jesus, the praise shall be thine. In heaven we'll meet in barmony aweet, And, glory to Jesus! we'll then be complete.

3. And when I have ended my pilgrimage here, In Jesus' pure righteousness let me appear: From the swellings of Jordan to thee will I cry: "Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I!"

4. And when the last trumpet shall sound through the skies, And the dead from the dust of the earth shall arise, With millions I'll join, far above youder sky, To praise the Great Rock that is higher than I conner find protection; None who on his arm rely Shall be reduced to base subjection.

- 4 You need not fear;—the cause is good;
 Come! who will to the crown aspire?
 In this cause the martyrs bled,
 Or shouted vict'ry in the fire;
 In this cause let's follow on,
 And soon we'll tell the pleasing story,
 How by faith we gain'd the crown,
 And fought our way to life and glory.
- 6 The battle, brethren, is begun, Behold the armics now in motion! Some, by faith, behold the crown, And almost grasp their future portion. Hark! the victory's sounding loud! Immanuel's clariot wheels are rumbling Mourners weeping through the crowd, And Satan's kingdom down is tumbling

- 2 A little faith does mighty deeds, Quite past all my recounting; Faith, like a little mustard seed, Can move a lofty mountain.
 - A little charity and zeal,

 A little tribulation.
 - A little patience makes us feel Great peace and consolation.
- 3 A little cross with cheerfulness,
 A little self-denial,
 Will serve to make our troubles less
 And bear the greatest trial.
 The Spirit like a little dove
 On Jesus once descended:

On Jesus once descended; To show his meckness and his love The emblem was intended.

4 The title of the little Lamb Unto our Lord was given; Such was our Saviour's little name, The Lord of earth and heaven.

- A little voice that's small and still Can rule the whole creation:
- A little stone the earth shall fill, And humble every nation.
- 5 A little zeal supplies the soul,
 - It doth the heart inspire;
 A little spark lights up the whole,
 - And sets the crowd on fire.

 A little union serves to hold
 - The good and tender-hearted;
- It's stronger than a chain of gold . And never can be parted.
- 6 Come, let us labour here below, And who can be the straitest; For in God's kingdom, all must know
 - The least shall be the greatest.
 O give us, Lord, a little drop
 Of heavenly tove a..d union
- O may we never, never stop Short of a full communion

My way is full of danger,

But 'tis the path that leads to God:

LAND OF PLEASURE.

And like a faithful soldier, I'll march along the heavenly road: Now I must gird my sword on, My breastplate, helmet, and my shield, And fight the hosts of Satan Until I reach the heavenly field. 3 - I'm on the way to Zion, Still guarded by my Saviour's hand; O, come along, dear sinners, And view Emmanuel's happy land: To all that stay behind me, a oid a long, a sad farewell! O come! or you'll repent it, When you shall reach the gatea of hell. 4 The vale of tears surrounds me. And Jordan's current rolls before; O! how I stand and tremble. To hear the dismal waters roar ! Whose hand shall then support me, And keep my soul from sinking there From sinking down to darkness. And to the regions of despair ?

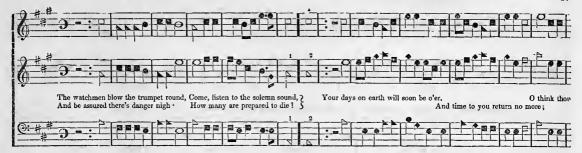

If Jesus stand beside me, I'll safely ride on Jordan'a wave: His word can calm the ocean, His lamp can cheer the gloomy vale: O may this friend be with me, When through the gates of death I sail! 6 Come, then, thou king of terrors, Thy fatal dart may lay me low; But soon I'll reach those regions Where everlasting pleasures flow: O sinners, I must leave you, And join that bless'd immortal band, No more to stand beside you, Till at the judgment-bar we stand. 7 Soon the archangel's trumpet Shall shake the globe from pole to pole. And all the wheels of nature Shall in a moment cease to roll . Then we shall see the Saviour, With shining ranks of angels come, To execute his vengeance, And take his ransom'd people home

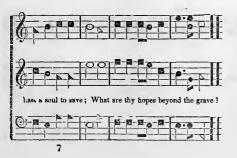

This stream shall not affright me,

Although it take me to the grave;

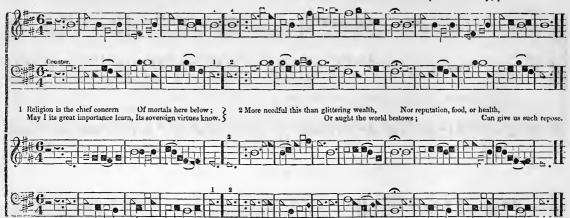

- 2 Come, old and young; come, rich and poor; You'il all be call'd to stand before The God that made the earth and sea, And there proclaim his majesty. Will you remain quite unconcern'd, While for your souls the watchmen mourn? They weep to think how you will stand With frightful ghosts at God's left hand.
- 3 O mortals! view the dream of life, And see how thousands end the strife, Who, though convinced, do still delay, Till death ensues and drags away; Will you for funcied earthly toys Deprive yourselves of heav'nly joys? And will the calls you have to-day Ue süghted still and pass away?

- 4 The trying scene will shortly come, When you must hear your certain doom; And if you then go unprepared, You'll hear in mind the truths you've heard, Your sparkling eyes will then roll round, While death will bring you to the ground The coffin, grave, and winding sheet, Will hold your lifeless frame complete.
- 5 Your friends will then pass by your tomb, And view the grass around it grown, And heave a sigh to think you're gone To the land where there's no return. O mortals! now .mprove your time, And while the gospel sun doth shine Fly swift to Christ, he is your friend, And then in heav'n your souls will and.

- Religion should our thoughts engage Amidst our youthful bloom; Twill fit us for declining age, And for the awful tomb.
- 4 O, may my heart, by be Be my Redeemer's thron
 And be my stubborn will subdued,
 His government to own

- 5 Let deep repentance, faith, and love Be join'd with godly fear; And all my conversation prove My heart to be sincere.
- 6 Preserve me from the snares of sin
 Through my remaining days,
 And in me let each virtue shine
 To my Redeemer's praise.

7 Let lively hope my soul inspire, Let warm affections rise, And may I wait, with strong desire To mount above the skies.

- 2 His name yields the ricnest perfume,
 And sweeter than music his voice;
 His presence disperses my guom,
 And makee all within me rejoice;
 I shoul, were he always thus nigh,
 Have nothing to wish or to fear;
 No mortal so happy as I,
 My summer would last all the year.
- 3 Content with beholding his face, My all to his pleasure resign'd; No changes of season or place, Would make any change in my mind

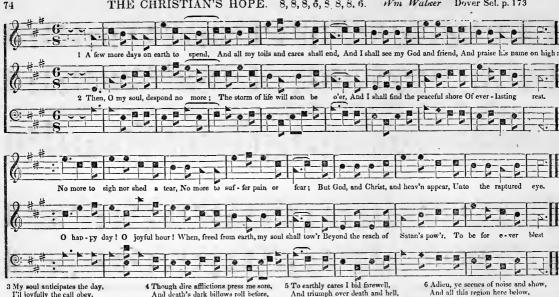

While bless d with a sense of his love, A palace a toy would appear, And prisons would palaces prove, If Jesus would dwell with me there.

4 Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun an I my song,
Say, why do I ianguish and pine,
And why are my winters so long!
O, drive these dark clouds from my sky
Thy soul-cherring presence restore
Or take me unto thee on high,

Where winter and clouds are no more

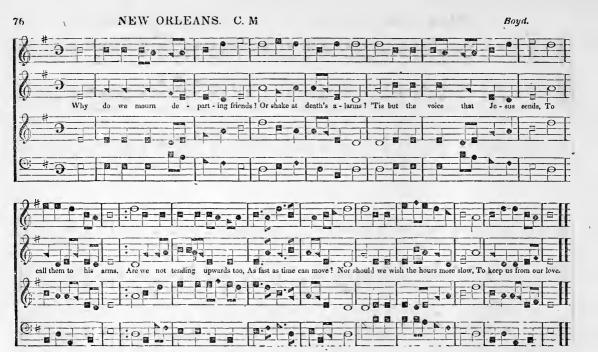

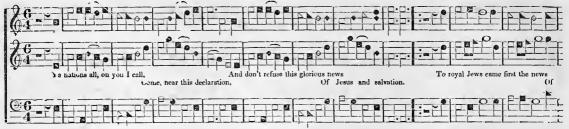

- I'll joyfully the call obey, Which comes to summon me away To seats prepared above. There I shall see my Saviour's fat '. And dwell in his beloved embrace And taste the fulness of his grace, And sing redeeming love.
- Yet still by faith I see the shore, Beyond the rolling flood:
- The banks of Canaan, sweet and fair, Before my raptured eves appear: It makes me think I'm almost there, la vonder bright abode.
- And go where saints and angels dwell, To praise th' Eternal Three. I'll join with those who're gone before, Who sing and shout their sufferings o er, Where pain and parting are no more, To all eternity.
- Where naught but disappointments grave A better world's in view.
 - My Saviour calls! I haste away, I would not here for ever stay : Hail! ve bright realms of endless Jav Vain world, once to ve adieu !

2 To Abraham the promise came, and to his seed for ever,
A fight to shine in Isaac's line, by Scripture we discover;
Hail, promised morn! the Saviour's born, the glorious Mediator—
God's blessed Word made fiesh and blood, assumed the human nature.

3 His parents poor in earthly store, to entertain the stranger
They found no bed to lay his head, but in the ox's manger:
No royal things, as used by kings, were seen by those that found him,
But in the hay the stranger lay, with swaddling bands around him.

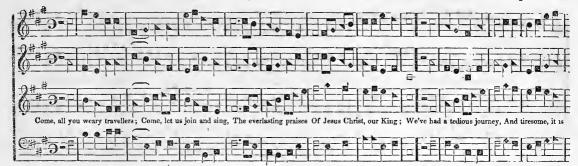

4 On the same night a glorious light to shepherds there appeared, Bright angels came in shining flame, they saw and greatly feared The angels said, "Be not afraid, although we much alarm you, We do appear good news to bear, as now we will inform you.

5 "The city's name is Bethlehem, in which God hath appointed, This glorious morn a Saviour's born, for him God hath anointed; By this you'll know, if you will go, to see this little stranger, His lovely charms in Mary's arms, both lying in a manger."

6 When this was said, straightway was made a glorious sound from heaven Each flaming tongue an anthem sung, "To men a Saviour's given, In Jesus' name, the glorious theme, we elevate our voices, At Jesus' birth be peace on earth, meanwhile all heaven rejoices."

7 Then with delight they took their flight, and wing'd their way to glory. The shepherds gazed and were amazed, to hear the pleasing story; To Bethlehem they quickly canne, the glorious news to earry, And in the stall they found them all, Joseph, the Babe, and Mary

8 The shepherds then return'd ugain to their own habitation, With joy of heart they did depart, now they have found salvation Glory, they cry, to God on high, who sent his Son to save us This glorious morn the Saviour's oom, his mane it is Christ Jenu-

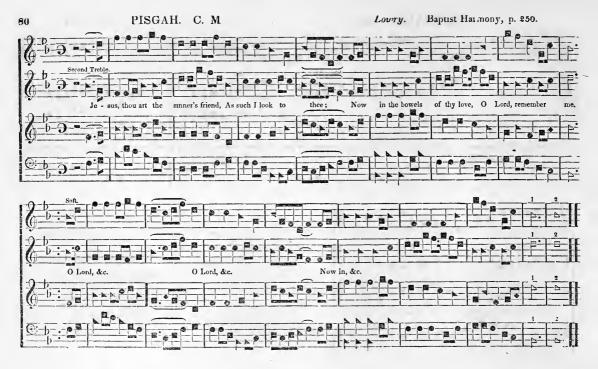

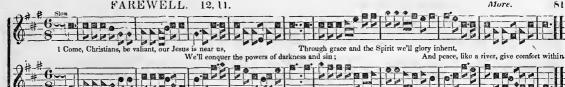

2 At first when Jesus found us,
He call'd us unto him,
And pointed out the danger
Of falling into sin;
The world, the flesh, and Satan,
Will prove a fatal snare,
Unless we do resist them,
By faith and fervent prayer,

3 But by our disobedience,
With sorrow we confess,
We've had too long to wander
In a dark wilderness

Where we might soon have fainted, In that enchanted ground, But Jesus interposed, And pleasant fruits were found.

4 Gracious foretastes of heaven Give life, and heatth, and peace, Revive our drooping spirits, And faith and love increase; Confessing Christ, our master, Obeying his command, We hasten on our journey, Unto the promised land

2 We have trials, and cares, and hardships, and losses,

We'll soon end in pleasures and glory for ever,

3 Young converts, be humble, the prospect is blooming, The wings of kind angels around you are spread; While some are oppressed with sin and are mourning, The spirit of joy upon you is shed.

4 Live near to our Captain, and always obey him, This world, flesh, and Satan must all be denied; Both care and diligence, and prayer without ceasing, Will safe land young converts to riches on high.

I Come, all ye young people of every relation, Come listen awhile, and to you I will tell How I was first called to seek for salvation.

Redemption in Jesus who saved me from hell. 2 I was not vet sixteen when Jesus first call'd me. To think of my soul, and the state I was in;

I saw myself standing a distance from Jesus, Between me and him was a mountain of sin. 3 The devil perceived that I was convinced,

He strove to persuade me that I was too young, That I would get weary betore my ascension, And wish that I had not so early begun.

5 O mourners, God bless you, don't faint in the spirit, Believe, and the Spirit our parden he'll give; He's now interceding and pleading his merit,

Give up, and your souls he will quickly receivo. 6 If truly a mourner, he's promised you comfort,

His good promises stand in his sacred word; O hearken and hear them, all glory, all glory,

The mourners are fill'd with the presence of God.

M. C. H. DAVIS' EXPERIENCE.

4 Sometimes he'd persuado me that Jesus was partial, When he was a setting of poor sinners free, That I was forsaken, and quite reprobated, And there was no mercy at all for poor me.

5 But glory to Jesus, his love's not confined To princes, nor men of a nobler degree; His love it flows bounteous to all human creatures, He gied for poor sinners, when nail'd to the tree. 6 And when I was groaning in sad lamentation,

My soul overwhelm'd in so row and in sin, He drew near me in mercy, and look'd on me with pity, He pardon'd my sins, and he gage me relief

7 O sinners, my bowels do move with desire; Why stand you gazing on the works of the Lord? O fly from the flames of devouring fire,

And wash your pollution in Jesus's blood 8 Brethren, in sweet gales we are all breezing,

My soul feels the mighty, the heavenly flame; I'm now on my journoy, my faith is increasing, All glory and praise to God and the Lamb.

7 And now I've found favour in Jesus my Saviour, And all his commandments I'm bound to obey; I trust he will keep me from all Satan's power, Till he shall think proper to call me away.

8 So farewell, young people, if I can't persuade you To leave off your follies and go with a friend, I'll follow my Saviour, in whom I've found favour

My days to his glory I'm bound for to spend.

There was a Romish lady brought up in popery, Her mother always taught her the priest she must obey; O pardon me, dear mother, I humbly pray thee now

And there she gain'd instruction, till God his love reveal'd:

No more she prostrates herself to pictures deck'd with

But soon she was betray d, and her Bible from her

3 I'll bow to my dear Jesus, I'll worship God unseen, I'll live by faith for ever, the works of men are vain; I cannot worship angels, nor pictures made by men;

Dear mother, use your pleasure, but pardon if you can. 4 With grief and great vexation, her mother straight

T' inform the Roman clergy the cause of all her wo: The priests were soon assembled, and for the maid did call.

And forced her in the dungeon, to fright her soul withal, 5 The more they strove to fright her, the more she did

Although her age was tender, her faith was strong and

The chains of gold so costly they from this lady took, And she with all her spirits, the pride of life forsook. 6 Before the pope they brought her, in hopes of her return. And there she was condemned in horrid flames to

Before the place of torment they brought her speedily, With lifted hands to heaven, she then agreed to die.

7 There being many ladies assembled at the place,

She raised her eyes to heaven, and begg'd supplying erace

Weep not, ye tender ladies, shed not a tear for me-While my poor body's burning, my soul the Lord shall see.

8 Yourselves you need to pity, and Zion's deep decay; Dear ladies, turn to Jesus, no longer make delay. In comes her raving mother, her daughter to behold, And in her hand she brought her pictures deck'd with gold.

9 O take from me these idels, remove them from my sight:

Restore to me my Bible, wherein I take delight. Alas, my aged mother, why on my ruin bent? 'Twas you that did betray me, but I am innocent.

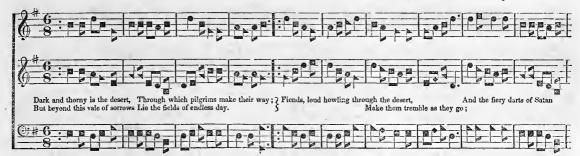

10 Tormentors, use your pleasure, and do as you think I hope my blessed Jesus will take my soul to rest.

Soon as these words were spoken, up steps the man of death.

And kindled up the fire to stop her mortal breath. 11 Instead of golden bracelets, with chains they bound her fast:

She cried, "My God give power now must I die at last?

With Jesus and his angels for ever I shall dwell, God pardon priest and reotle, and so I bid farewell."

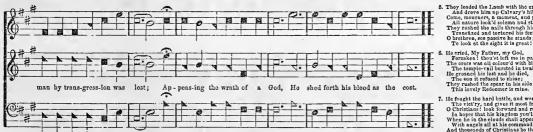

- 2 O, young soldiers, are you weary
 Of the troubles of the way?
 Does your strength begin to fail you,
 And your vigour to decay?
 Jesus, Jesus, will go with you.
 He will lead you to his throne;
 He who dyed his garments for you,
 And the wine-press trod slone.
- 3 He whose thunder shakes creation,
 He who bids the planets roll;
 He who rides upon the tempest,
 And whose sceptre sways the whole.
 Round him are ten thousand angels,
 Ready to obey command;
 They are always hovering, round you,
 Till you reach the heav'nly land.
- 4 There, on flowery hills of pleasure, In the fields of endless rest, Love, and joy, and peace shall ever Reign and triumph in your breas Who can paint hose scenes of glory, Where the ransom'd dwell on high? Where the golden harps for ever Sound redemption through the sky?
- 5 Millions there of flaming seraphs
 Fly across the heavenly plain;
 There they sing immortal praises—
 Glory! glory! is their strain:
 But methinks a sweeter concern
 Makes the heavenly arches ring.
 And a song is heard in Zion
 Which the ancels cannot sing.
- 6 See the heavenly host, in raptus, Gaze upon this shining band; Wondering at their costly garmente, And the laurels in their hand! There, upon the golden pavement, See the ransom! march along, While the splendid courts of glory Sweetly echo to their song.
- 7 O their crowns, how bright they sparkle?
 Such as monarchs never wear;
 They are gone to heav'nly pastures—
 Jesus is their Shepherd there.
 Hail, ye happy, happy spirits!
 Welcome to the blissful plain!—
 Glory, honour, and salvation!
 Reign, sweet Sheuberd, ever reign

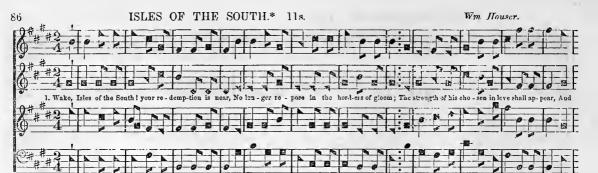

- 2. O. did my dear Jesus thus bleed. And pity a ruin'd lost race!

 O. whence did such mercy proceed, Such boundless compassion and grace ! His body bore anguish and pain. His spirit 'most sunk with the lead
 - A short time before he was slain, His swent was as great drops of blood
- 3. O. was it for crimes I had done. The Saviour was hail'd with a kiss ! By Judas the traitor alone; Was ever compassion like this!
 - The ruthans all join'd in a band. Confined him and led him away, The cords wrapt around his eweet hands.
 - O sinuere! look at him, I pray,
- 4. To Pilate's stone piller when led, His body was lashed with whips: It never by any was said. A railing word dropt from his lips: They made him a crowo out of thoros; They smote him and did him abuse :
 - They clothed him with crimson, in scorn, And hail'd him, the King of the Jews.

- 5. They loaded the Lamb with the cross, And drove him no Calvary's hill; Come, mouraers, a moment, and pause, All nature look'd solemn and still! They rushed the nails through his hands, Transfixed and tortured his feet; O brethren, sce passive he stands ;
- He cried, My Father, my God, Forsaken! thou'st left me in pain! The cross was all colour'd with blood. The temple-vail bursted in twain: He ground his last and he died. The sun it refused to shine: They rushed the spear in his side: This lovely Redcemer is mine.
- 7. He fought the hard battle, and won The vict'ry, and gives it most froe: O Christiaus! look forward and run. In hopes that his kingdom you'll see: When he in the clouds shall appear. With augels all at his command, And thousands of Christians be there, All singing with harps in a band,
- 8. How pleasant and happy the view! Enjoying such beams of delight! His beauty to Christians he'll show, O Jesus, I long for the sight!
 - I loug to mount up in the skies. In Paradise make my stone. And sing of salvation on high,
 - And rest with a pacified God

- The billows that girt you, the wild waves that roar, The zephyrs that play where the ocean-storms cense, Shall bear the rich freight to your desolate shore, Shall waft the glad tidings of parden and ponce.
- On the islands that sit in the regions of night,
 The lands of despair, to oblivion a prey,
 The morning will open with healing and light,
 The glad Star of Bethlehem brighten to day.
- 4 The altar and ided in dust overthrown, The inconse forbade that was hallow'd with blood; The priest of Melchizedek there shall atone, And the shrine of Atöol be sacred to God.
- 5. The heathen will hasten to welcome the time, The day-spring, the prophet in vision once saw, When the beams of Messiah will 'lumine each elime, And the isles of the ocean shall wait for his law.

* The words of this piece were "composed by Wm. B. Tappan, Esq., and sung on the wharf at New Haven, at the embarkation of the missionaries for the Sandwich Islands, in 1822." O what hath God wing the three islands since that time! "The parehed ground has become a pool"—"The Islands, indeed, become "severa to doub," The largest course on earth is there; these per bathean harts been given to decus for its "inheritance"—though write course, for this possession!" THE MOULDERING VINE. 8, 1.

- 2 See! in yonder forest standing, Lofty eedars, how they nod! Scenes of nature how surprising, Read in nature nature's God. Whilst the annual frosts are cropping, Leaves and tendrils from the trees, So our friends are early drooping, We are like to one of these.
- 3 Hollow winds about me roarng,
 Noisy waters round me rise;
 Whilst I sit my fate deploring.
 Tears fast streaming from my eyes
 What to me is autumn's treasure
 Since I know no earthly joy,
 Long I've lost-all youthin pleasure,
 Time must youth and health destroy

- 2 We have laid up our love And our treasure above, Though our bodies continue below, The redeem'd of the Lord Will remember his word, And with singing to paradise go.
- 3 Now with singing and praise, Let us spend all the days, By our heavenly Father bestow'd, While his grace we receive From his hounty, and live To the honour and glory of God.
- 4 For the glory we were First created to share, Both the nature and kingdom divine! Now created again That our souls may remain, Throughout time and eternity thine

- 5 We with thanks do approve, The design of that love Which hath join'd us to Jesus's name; So united in heart, Let us never more part, Till we meet at the feast of the Lamb.
- 6 There, O! there at his feet, We shall all likewise meet, And be parted in body no more; We shall sing to our lyres, With the heavenly choirs, And our Saviour in glory adore.
- 7 Hallelujah we sing, To our Father and King, And his rapturous praises repeat: To the Lamb that was slain, Hallelujah again, Sing, all heaven and fall at his feet.

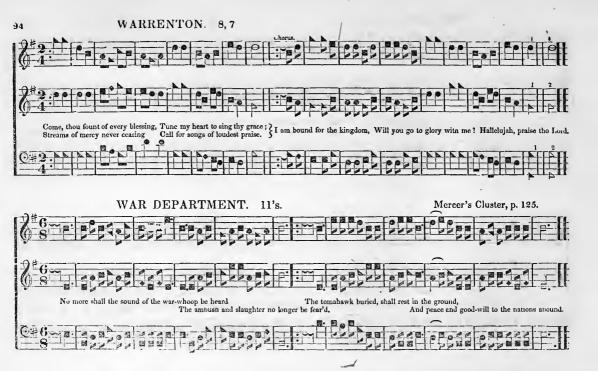

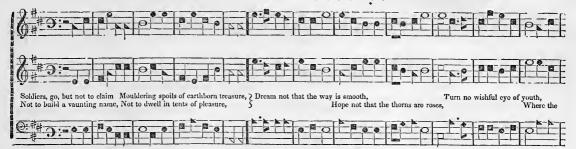

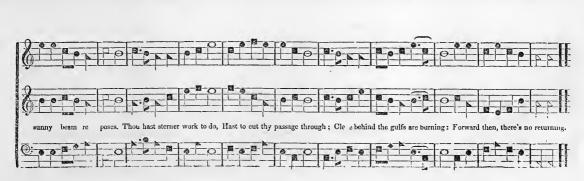

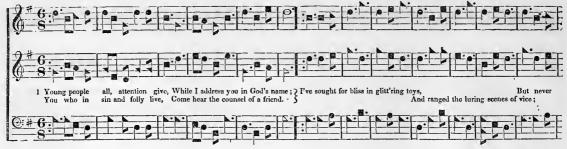

MISSION.

- 2 He spake at once my sins forgiven, And wash'd my load of guilt away; He gave me glory, peace, and heaven, And thus I found the heav'nly way And now with trembling sense I view The billows roll beneath your feet; For death eternal waits for you, Who slight the force of gospel truth
- 3 Youth, like the spring, will soon be gone By fleeting time or conquering death, Your morning sun may set at noon, And leave you ever in the dark. Your sparkling eyes and blooming cheeks Must wither like the blasted rose; The coffio, earth, and winding sheet Will soon your active limbs enclose.
- 4 Ye heedless ones that wildly stroll, The grave will soon become your bed, Where silence reigns, and vapours roll In solemn darkness round your head.

- Your friends will pass the lonesome place, And with a sigh move slow along; Still gazing on the spires of grass With which your graves are overgrown.
- 5 Your souls will land in darker realms, Where vengcance reigns and billows roas, And roll amid the burning flames, When thousand thousand years are o'er. Sunk in the shades of endless night, To groan and howl in endless pain,
- And never more behold the light, And never, never rise agam. 6 Ye blooming youth, this is the state
 - Of all who do tree grace refuse; And soon with you 'twill be too late The way of life and Christ to choose. Come, lay your carnal weapons by, No longer fight against your God But with the gospel now comply

And heav'n shall be your great revert.

2 Amid the shouts of numerous friends, Of hosts divinely bright,

The Judge in solemn pomp descends, Array'd in robes of light;

- His head and hair are white as snow, His eyes a fiery flame. A radiant crown adorns as brow.
- And Jesus is his name.
- 3 Writ on his thigh his name appears, And scars his victories tell: Lo! in his hand the conqueror bears The keys of death and hell:
 - So he ascends the judgment-scat, And at his dread command.

Myriads of creatures round his feet In solemn silence stand.

4 Princes and peasants here expect Their last, their rightcous doom;

The men who dared his grace reject, And they who dared presume.

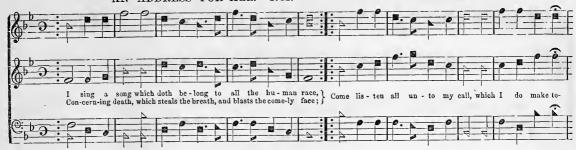

- "Depart, ye sons of vice and sin," The injured Jesus cries.
- While the long kindling wrath within Flashes from both his eyes.
- 5 And now in words divinely sweet, With rapture in his face, Aloud his sacred lips repeat
- The sentence of his grace : "Well done, my good and faithful sons,
- The children of my love. Receive the sceptres, crowns and thrones

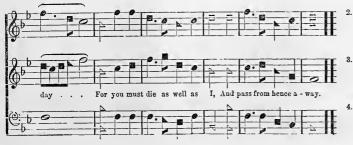

Prepared for you above."

- 2 The grave is near, the cradle seen, How swift the moments pass between. And whisper as they fly; Unthinking man, remember this, Though fond of sublunary bliss, That you must groan and die.
- 3 My soul, attend the solemn call,
 Thine earthly tent must snortly fall
 And thou must take thy flight
 Beyond the vast expansive blue,
 To sing above as angels do,
 Or sink in endless night.

- No human power can stop the hour, wherein a mortal dies;
 A Cesar may be great to-day, yet death will close his eyes:
 Though some do strive and do arrive to riches and renowa.
 Enjoying health and swim in wealth, yet death will bring them down.
- 3. Though beauty grace your comely face, with roses white and red, A dying fall will spoil it all, for Absalom is dead: Though you acquire the best attire, appearing fine and fair. Yet death will come into the room, and strip you naked there.
- 4. The princes high and beggars die, and mingle with the dust, The rich, the brave, the negro slave, the wicked and the just: Therefore prepare to meet thy God, before it be too late. Or else you'll weep, lament and cry, lost in a ruin'd state

- 2 Floods of everlasting light
 Precy flash lefore him;
 Myriads, with supreme delight,
 Instantly sdore him:
 Angel trumps resound his fame,
 Lutes of lucid gold proclaim
 All the music of his name,
 Heav'n echoing with the theme.
- 3 Four-and-twenty elders rise From their princely station; Shout his glorious victories, Smr the great salvation;

- Cast their crowns before his throne, Cry in reverential tone, Glory give to God alone; 'Holy, holy, holy One!'
- 4 Hark! the thrilling symphonics Seem, methinks, to seize us Join we too their holy lays, Jesus, Jesus, Jesus! Sweetest sound in seraphs' soung— Sweetest notes on mortal ingue Sweetest notes on mortal ingue fests, Jesus, roll along

- 2 In every condition—in sickness and health, In poverty's vale, or abounding in wealth; At home and abroad, on the land, on the sea, As thy days may demand, shall thy strength ever be.
- 3 "Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismay'd!
 I, I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
 I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause 'nee to stand,
 Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.
- 4 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go, The rivers of water shall not overflow; For i will be wun thee thy troubles to bless And sanctify to thee 'thy deepest distress.

- 5 "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall he, My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply; The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.
- 6 "E'en down to old age, all my people shall prove My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love: And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn, Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.
- 7 "The soul that on Jesus hath lean'd for repose, I will not, I will not, desert to his foes; That soul, though all hell should endeavour to chake 'Il never, no never, no never forsake'

- 2 Other anowledge I disdain,
 "Tis all but vanity:
 Christ, the Lamb of God, was slain,
 He tasted death for me!
 Me to save from endless wo,
 The sin-atoning victim died!
 Only Jerus will I know,
 And Jevus crucified!
- 3 Afere will I set up my rest;
 My fluctuating heart
 From the haven of his breast
 Shall never more depart:
 Whither should a sinner go?
 His wounds for me stand open wide;
 Only Jesus will I know
 And Jesus crucified

- 4 Him to know is life and peace, And pleasure without end; This is all my happiness, On Jesus to depend; Daily in his grace to grow, And ever in his faith abide, Only Jesus will I know, And Jesus crucified!
- 5 O that I could all invite,
 This saving truth to prove:
 Show the length, the breadth, the heiga
 And depth of Jesus' love!
 Fam I would to sincers show
 The blood by faith alone applied!
 Only Jesus will I know
 And Jesus cruenced

- 2 Brethren, see poor sinners round you, Trembling on the brink of wo; Death is coming, hell is moving; Can you bear to let them go ? See our fathers-sec our mothers, And our children sinking down; Brethren, pray, and holy manna Will be shower'd all around.
- 3 Sisters, will you join and help us? Moses' sisters aided him ; Will you help the trembling mourners, Who are struggling hard with sin ? Tell them all about the Saviour, Tell them that he will be found; Sisters, pray, and holy manna Will be shower'd all around.
- 4 Is there here a trembling jailer. Seeking grace, and fill'd with fears . Is there here a weeping Mary, Pouring forth a flood of tears? Brethren, join your cries to help them Sisters, let your prayers abound; Pray, O! pray, that holy manna Mey be scatter'd all around.
- Let us love each other too: Lct us love and pray for sinners, Till our God makes all things new Then he'll call us home to heaven. At his table we'll sit down . Christ will gird himself, and serve us With sweet manna all around

5 Let us love our God supremely,

THE SAINTS' DELIGHT.

- 2 Should earth against my soul engage, And fiery larts be hurl'd, Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
 - And face a frowning world.
- 3 Let cares like a wild deluge come, Let storms of sorrow fall, So I but safely reach my home My God, my heaven, my all.
- 4 There I shall bathe my weary soul In seas of heavenly rest; And not a wave of trouble roll Across my peaceful breast.

O, how he loves! Give thyself e'en this day to him. O, how he loves! Is it sin that pains and grieves thee ? Unbelief and trials tease thee ? Jesus can from all release thee. O, how he loves! 3 Love this friend who longs to save thee, O, how he loves! Dost thou love? He will not leave thee O, how he loves! Think no more then of to-morrow. Take his easy yoke and follow, Jesus carries all thy sorrow, O, how he loves! 4 All thy sins shall be forgiven, O, how he loves!

Backward all thy foes be driven,

O, how he loves

2 Blessed Jesus! wouldst thou know him.

5 Pause, my soul! adore and wonder, O, how he loves! Naught can cleave this love asunder. O, how he loves! Neither trial, nor temptation, Doubt, nor fear, nor tribulation, Can bereave us of salvation: O, how he loves! 6 Let us still this love be viewing: O, how he loves! And, though faint, keep on pursuing O, how he loves! He will strengthen each endeavour, And when pass'd o'er Jordan's river This shall be our song tor . ver O, how he loves

Best of blessings he'll provide thee,

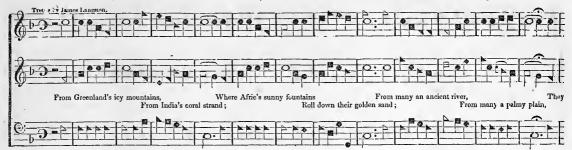

Safe to glory he will guide thee, O, how he loves!

Naught but good shall e'er betide thee,

- 2 And he that walks life's thorny way, With feelings caln and ev'n, Whose path is lit from day to day With virtue's bright and steady ray, Hath something felt of heav'n.
- 3 He that the Christian's course has run, And all his foes forgiv'n, Who measures out life's little span In love to God and love to man, Ou earth hath 'ssted heav'n,

2 What though the spicy breeze
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile;
In vain, with lavish kindness,
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wo

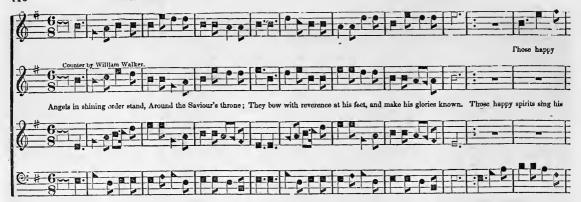

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted With wisdom from on high, Shall we, to men benighted, The lamp of life deny? Salvation! O salvation.

The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learn'd Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole
Till o'er our ransom'd nature.
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator
In bijss retarns to reign.

- I The cross of Christ inspires my heart.
 To sing redeeming grace;
 Awake, my soul, and bear a part
 In my Redeemer's praise.
 O! what can be compar'd to him
 Who died upon the tree!
 This is my dear, delightful thems
 That Jesus died for me.
- When at the table of the I_tord We humbly take our place, The death of Jesus we record, With love and thankfulness

These emblems bring my Lord to view, Upon the bloody tree, My soul believes and feels it's true, That Jesus died for me.

3 His body broken, nail'd, and torn,
And stain'd with streams of blood,
His spotless soul was left forlorn,
Forsaken of his God.
'Twas then his Father gave the stroke
That justice did decree;
All nature felt the dreadful stroke,
When Jesus died for me.

My God, my God, he cried, Why hast thou thus forsaken me! And thus my Saviour died. But why did God forsake his Son, When bleeding on the tree! He died for sins, but not his own, For Jesus died for me

4 Eli lama sabachthani.

5 My guilt was on my Surety laid And therefore he must die; His soul a sacrifice was waste. For such a worm as 1

Was ever love so great as this?
Was ever grace so free?
This is my glory, joy and bliss,
That Jesus died for me.

6 He took his meritorious blood, And rose above the skies, And in the presence of his God, Presents his sacrifice. Vis intercession must prevail With such a gorious plea My cause can never, never fail, For Jesus died for me

7 Angels in shining order sit Around my Saviour'a throne;
They bow with reverence at his feet
And make his glories known,
Those happy spirits sing his praise
To all eternity;
But I can ang redeeming grace
For Jesus died for me.

To bear my heart along,
My flowing numbers soon would rase
To an immortal song.
I'd charm their harps and golden lyres
In sweetest harmony,
And tell to all the heavenly choirs
That Jesus died for me.

8 O! had I but an angel's voice

- 2 Come, dear friends, and don't neglect it,
 Come to Jesus in your prime;
 Great salvation, don't reject it,
 O receive it, now's your time;
 Now the Saviour is beginning
 To revive his work again.
 Glov, honour, &c.
- 3 Now let each one cease from sinning.
 Come and follow Christ the way;
 We shall all receive a blessing,
 If from him we do not stray;
 Golden moments we ve neglected,
 Yet the Lord invites again!
 Glory, honour, &c.

- 4 Come, let us run our race with patience, Looking unto Christ the Lord, Who doth live and reign for ever, With his Father and our God; He is worthy to be praised, He is our exalted king, Glory, benour, &c.
- 6 Come, dear children, prause your Jesus, Praise him, praise him evermore, May his great love now constrain us, His great name for to adore. O then let us join together, Crowns of glory to obtain! Glory, benour, &c.

PART II.

CONTAINING

SOME OF THE MORE LENGTHY AND ELEGANT PIECES, COMMONLY USED AT CONCERTS, OR SINGING SOCIETIES.

- 2 In vain to heaven she litts her eyes, For guilt, a heavy chain, Still drags her downward from the skies, To darkness fire, and pain.
- 3 Awake and mourn, ye heirs of hell, Let stubborn sinners fear; You must be driv'n from earth, and dwell A bong you gay he there.

- 4 See how the pit gapes wide for you, And flashes in your face; And thou, my soul, look downward too, And sing recovering grace.
- 5 He is a god of sovereign love, That promised heaven to me, And taught my thoughts to s ar above. Where happy spirits be.

6 Prepare me, Lord, for thy right hand, Then come the joyful day; Come, death, and some celestial band, To hear my soul away.

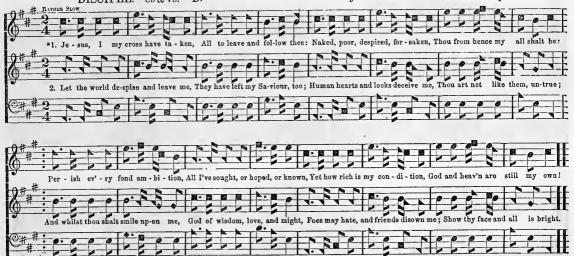

2 But new I am a soldier. My Captain's gone before: He's given me my orders. And bids me ne'er give o'er: His promises are faithful-A righteous crown he'll give. And all his valiant soldiers Eternally shall live.

FAITHFUL SOLDIER.

- 3 Through grace I am determined To conquer, though I die, And then away to Jesus. On wings of love I'll fly: Farewell to sin and serrow. I bid them both adieu! And O, my friends, prove faithful, And on your way pursue
- 4 Whene'er you meet with troubles And trials on your way, Then cast your care on Jesus, And don't forget to pray. Gird on the gospel armour Of faith, and hope, and love, And when the combat's ended. He'll carry you above.
- 5 O do not be discouraged. For Jesus is your friend; And if you lack for knowledge, He'll not refuse to lend. Neither will be upbraid you, Though often you request, He'll give you grace to conquer, And take you home to rest.
- 6 And when the last loud trumpet Shall rend the vaulted skies, And bid th' entombed millions From their cold beds arise: Our ransom'd dust, revived, Bright beauties shall put on. And soar to the blest mansions Where our Redeemer's gone.
- 7 Our eyes shall then with rapture, The Saviour's face behold: Our feet, no more diverted. Shall walk the streets of rotal Our ears shall hear with transport The hosts celestial sing ; Our tongues snall chant the giories
 - Of our unmortal King.

- Go, then, earthly fame and treasure, Come, disaster, scorn, and pain; In thy service pain is pleasure,
 - With thy favour loss is goin.
 I have called thee, Abba, Father,
 I have set my heart on thee:
 - Storms may howl, and clouds may gather, All must work for good to me.
- Man may trouble and distress me, 'Twill but drive me to thy hreast; Life with trials hard may press me, lleav'n will bring me sweeter rest. Oh! 'tis not in grief to harm me,
 - While thy love is left to me; Oh! 'twere not in joy to charm me, Were that joy unmix'd with thee.
- 5. Soul, then know thy full salvation; Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care; Joy to find, in ev'ry station, Smething still to do or bear: Think what Spirit dwells within thee; Think what Father's smiles are thine; Think that Jesus died to win thee; Child of heaven, cant thou repine?
- 6. Haste thee on from grace to glory. Arm'd by faith, and wing'd by prayer! Heaven's -ternal day's before thee, God's own hand shall guide thee there: Soon shall close thy earthly mission, Soon shall pass thy pligrim days; Hope shall change to glad fruition, Faith to sight, and prayer to grates.

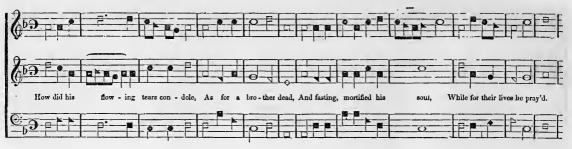

* This glorious hymn la said to have been composed by a young English lady, a Methodist, who had suffered much affliction.

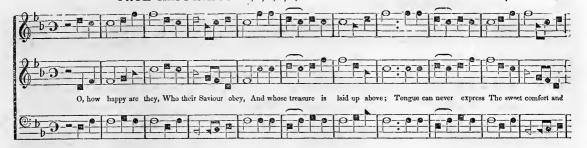

6, 6, 9, 6, 6, 9

That comfort was mine. When the favour divine.

TRUE HAPPINESS.

- When my heart first believed, ()! what joy I received! What a heaven in Jesus's name .
- 'Twas a heaven below,
- The Redeemer to know, And the angels could do nothing more Nor envied Ehiah his scat; Than to fall at his feet, And the story repeat, And the Saviour of sinners ad .. a
- Jesus, all the day long, Was my joy and my seng;
- O! that all his salvation might see! He hath loved me, I cried. He hath suffer'd and died. To redeem such a rebel as me.

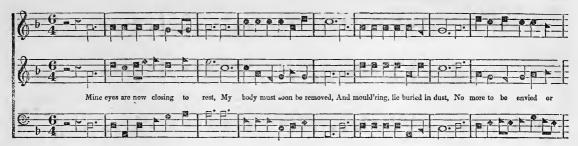

- On the wings of his love. I was carried above I first found in the blood of the Lamb; All sig and temptation, and pair . I could not believe
 - That I ever should grieve, That I ever should suffer again.
 - I rode on the sky, Freely justified I. My soul mounted higher, In a chariot of fire, And the world was put under my fect
 - O. he capturous height Of that holy delight Of my Saviour possess'd,
 - Which I felt in the life-giving blood I was perfectly bless'd, Overwhelm'd with the fulness of God.

- What a mercy is this! What a heaven of bliss!
- How unspeakably favour'd am I! Gather'd into the fold. With believers enroll'd. With believers to live and to die!
- Now my remnant of days Would I spend to his praise, Who hath died my poor soul to redeem Whether many or few, All my years are his due;

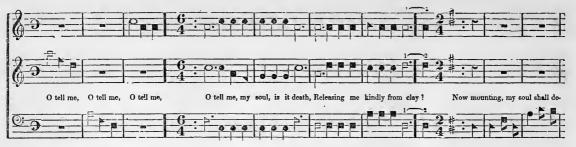

May they all be devoted to him

- 2 Who the cause of Christ would vield ! Who would leave the battle-field ? Who would east away his shield ?-Let nim basely go: Who for Zion's King will stand ? Who will join the faithful band? Let him come with heart and hand, Let him face the foe.
- 3 By the mercies of our God, By Emmanuel's streaming blood, When alone for us he stood, Ne'er give up the strife:

Ever to the latest breath, Hark to what your Captain saith ;-"Be thou faithful unto death; Take the crown of life."

Dover Sel. p. 152

4 By the woes which rebels provo, By the bliss of holy love, Sinners, seek the joys above, Sinners turn, and live! Here is freedom worth the name; Tyrant sin is put to shame; Grace inspires the hallow'd flame God the crown will give.

Dat I am saved by grace divine, Who am de worst of all mankind, O glory be to God; The first three verses of this song were taken almost verbatim, by a Missionary, from an Indian's experience, while he was relating it; the last two verses were composed by David Walders the Author's brother-

Through Jesus' streaming blood;

He save um life before:

Me prize him evermore.

God bear poor Indian in de wned; So me lub him, and dat be good

Dat in de water you may see

De way my Jesus go;

To follow nere below

Dis is de way I do believe Dat Jesus here for us did leave.

- 1 O Jesus, my Saviour, I know thou art mine, For three all the pleasures of sin I resign; Of objects most pleasing, I love thee the best, Without thee I'm wretched, but with thee I'm blest.
- 2 Thy Spirit first taught me to know I was blind, Then taught me the way of salvation to find: And when I was sinking in gloomy despair, Thy mercy relieved me, and bid me not fear.
- 3 In vain I attempt to describe what I feel, The language of mortals or angels would fail; My Jesus is precious, my soul's in a flame, I'm raised to a rapture while praising his name

- 4 I find him in singing, I find him in prayer.

 In sweet meditation he always is near;

 My constant companion, O may we ne'er part'

 All glory to Jesus, he dwells in my heart.
- 5 I love thee, my Saviour, &c
- 6 My Jesus is precious—I cannot forbear, Though sunners despise me, his love to declare; His love overwhelms me; had I wings I'd fly To praise him in mansions prepared in the sky.
- 7 Then millions of ages my soul would employ In praising my Jesus, my love and my joy Without interruption, when all the glad throng With pleasures unceasing unite at the song.

2 O Jesus, for such wondrous condescension, Our praises and reverence are an offering meet, Now is the Word made flesh and dwells among us O come and let us worship at his feet.

3 Shout his almighty name, ye choirs of angols, And let the celestial courts his praise repeat; Unto our God be glory in the highest, O come and let us worship at his feet

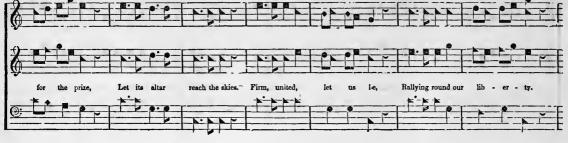

- 2 O! may the desert land rejoice, And mourners hear the Saviour's voice; While praise their every tongue employs, And all obtain immortal joys, And give to Jesus glory.
- $ O! may the saints of every name Unite to praise the bleeding Lamb! May jars and discords cease to flame, And all the Saviour's love proclaim, And give to Jesus glory.
- 4 I long to see the Christians join
 In union sweet, and peace divine;
 When every church with grace shall shine,
 And grow in Christ the living vine,
 And give to Jesus glory.
- 5 Come, parents, children, bond, and free, Come, who will go along with me? I'm bound fair Canaan's land to see, And shout with saints eternally, And give to Jesus glory

- 6 Those beauteous fields of living green, By faith my joyful eyes have seen; Though Jordan's billows roll between, We soon shall cross the narrow stream, And give to Jesus glory.
- 7 A few more days of pain and wo, A few more suffering scenes below, And then to Jesus we shall go, Where everlasting pleasures flow, And there we'll give him glory.
- 8 That awful trumpet soon will sound, And shake the vast creation round, And call the nations under ground, And all the saints shall then be crown'd, And give to Jesus glory.
- 9 Then shall our tears be wined away, No more our feet shall ever stray; When we are freed from cumbrous clay We'll praise the Lord in endless day And give to besus glove

- To Canaan's coast we'll hasten,
 To join the heavenly throng,
 Hark! from the canks of Jordan,
 How sweet the pilgrims' song!
 Then Jesus they are viewing,
 By faith we see him oo,
- We smile, and weep, and praise him,
 And on our way pursue
- 3 Though sinners do despise us,
 And treat us with disdain,
 Our former conrades slight us
 Esteem us low and mean
 No earthly joy shall charm us,
 While marching on our way,
 Our Jesus will defend us.

In the distressing day.

- We'ro willing to sustain,
 And in divine compassion,
 To pray for them again;
 For Christ, our loving Saviour,
 Our Comforter and Friend,
 Will bless us with his favour,
 And ruide us to the end.
- 4 With streams of consolation,
 We're filled as with new wine.
 We die to transent pleasures,
 And live to things divine.
 We sink in holy raptures
 While viewing things above.
 Why glory to my Savieur
 My soul is full of ove

'Tis there I may learn the ways of heavenly wisdem. To guide my feeble steps on high; O come, &c. The flow'ry paths of peace to tread, Where rays of heavenly bliss are shed,

My wand'ring steps to lead: O come, &c.

I there hear the voice in heavenly accents speaking. "Let little children come to me; O come, &c. Forbid them not their hearts to give, Let them on me in youth believe. And I will them receive:" O come, &c.

With joy I accept the gracious invitation; My heart exults with rapturous hope; O come, &c My deathless spirit, when I die, Shall, on the wings of angels, fly To mansions in the sky: O come, &c.

- 2 See the royal banner flying,
 Hear the heralds loudly crying,
 "Rebel sinners, royal favour
 Now is offer'd by the Saviour."
 Jesus reigns, &c.
- 3 Hear, yo sons of wrath end ruin,
 Who have wrought your own undoing,
 Here is life and free salvation,
 Offer'd to the whole creation.

 Jesus reigns, &c.
- 4 Turn unto the Lord most holy,
 Shun the paths of vice and folly;
 Turn, or you are lost for ever,
 O! now turn to Ged the Saviour.

 Jeaus reigns. &c.

- 4 Sweet woodbines will rise round his feet, And willows their sorrowing wave; Young hyacinths freshen and bloom, While hawthorns encircle his grave. Each morn when the sun gilds the east, (The green grass bespangled with dew.) He'll cast his bright beams on the west, To charm the sad Carotine's view.
- 3 O Corydon! hear the sad cries Of Caroline, plaintive and slow; O spirit! look down from the skies, And pity thy mourner below; "Tis Careline's voice in the grove, Which Philomel hears on the plain. Then striving the mourner to soothe, With sympathy joins in her strain.
- 4 Ye shepherds so blithesome and young, Retire from your sports on the green, Since Corydon's deaf to my song, The wolves tear the lambs on the plain; Each swain round the forest will stray And sorrowing hang down his head, His pipe then in symphony play, Some dure to sweet Corydon's shade.
 - 5 And when the still night has unfurl'd. Her robes of the hamlet around, Gray twilight retires from the world, And darkness encumbers the ground, Pill leave my owe gloomy abode, To Corydon's um will I fly. There kneeling will bless the just Gol. Who dwell: the manous on blab.

The Christian fiil'd with rapturous joy, Midst flaming worlds he mounts on high, To meet the Saviour in the sky, And see the face of Jesus; The soul and body reunits. And fill'd with glory infinite. Biessed day. Christians say! Will you may. That we may All join the happy company, To praise the name of Jesus.

Take courage and fight valiantly, Stand fast with aword in hand; Then, pilgrims dear, pray, do not fear, But let us follow on.

2 We have a howling wilderness, To Canaan's happy shore, A land of dearth, and pits, and snares, Where chilling winds do roar. But Jesus will be with us, And guard us by the way; Though enemies examine us, He'll teach us what to say

3 The pleasant fields of paradise, So glorious to behold, The valleys clad in uving green, The mountains paved with gold: Che trees of life with heavenly fruit, Behold how rich they stand Blow, gentle gales, and bear my soul To Canaan's happy land.

4 Sweet rivers of salvation all
Through Canaan's land do roll,
The beams of day bring glittering scenes
Illuminate my soul;
Ther's ponderous elouds of glory,
All set in diamonds bright;
And there's my smiling Jesus,
Who is my heart's delight.

5 Already to my raptured sight, The blissful fields arise, And plenty spreads her smiling stores, Inviting to my eyes. O sweet abode of endless rest, I soon shall travel there, Nor earth nor all her empty joys Shall long detain me here

6 Come, all you pilgrim travellers,
Fresh courage take by me;
Meantime Fill tell you how I came,
This happy laud to see;
Through faith the glorious telescope
I view'd the worlds above,
And God the Fatter reconciled.
Which fills my heart with lowe

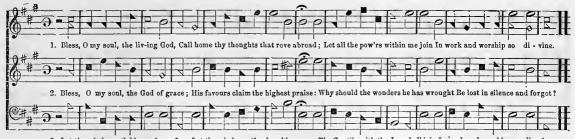

2 Why should you go mourning from such a physician,
Come to him believing, though bad your condition,
My soul he hath healed, my heart he rejoices,
""! sorve him, and praise him, and always adore him

Who is and and wining your sickness to either file Father has promised your case to ensure; He brought me to Zion, to hear the glad voices, Till we meet in heaven where parting's no more

3. Let the whole earth his pow'r confess, Let the whole earth adore his grace; The Gentile with the Jew shall join In work and worship so di - vine.

3. Our moments fly apace, Our feeble powers decay; Swift as a flood our hasty days Are sweeping us away.

- Yet if our days must fly, We'll keep their end in sight, We'll spend them all in wisdom's ways, And let them speed their flight.
- They'll waft us sooner o'er
 This life's tempestuous sea:
 Soon shall we reach the peaceful shore,
 Of bleet eternity.

2. One day a - mid the place Where my dear God hath been, Is sweet or than ten thou-saud days Of ploa - sur - a - ble sin.

4 My will ing soul would stay in such a frame as this, And sit and sing her - self a way To ev - er - last ing bliss

- 2 Parent of virtue, muse of thought, By thee are saints and patriots taught Wisdom to thee her treasures ewe, And in thy lap fair science grow.
- 3 Whate'er's in thee, refines and charms, Excites to thought, to virtue warms; Whate'er is perfect, firm and good, We owe to thee, sweet solitude.
- 4 With thee the charms of life shall last, E'en when the rosy bloom is past; When slowly pacing time shall spread Thy silver blossoms o'er my head.
- 5 No more with this vain world perplex'd, Thou shalt prepare me for the next The spring of life shall gently cease, And angels waft my soul to peace.

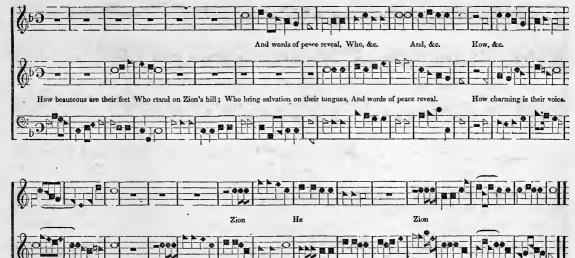

2 Our conflicts here, though great they be, Shall not prevent our victory, If we but watch, and strive, and pray, Like soldiers in the good old way. CHORUS.

And I'll sing hallelu ah. And glory be to God on high; And I'll sing hallelujah, There's glory beaming from the sky.

- 3 O good old way, how sweet thou art! May none of us from thee depart, But may our actions always say, We're marching on the good old way. And I'll sing, &c.
- 4 Though Satan may his power employ, Our peace and comfort to destroy, Yet never fear, we'll gain the day, And triumph in the good old way And I'll sing, &c.

- 5 And when on Pisgah's top we stand, And view by faith the promised land, Then we may sing, and shout, and pray And march along the good old way. And I'll sing, &c.
- 6 Ye valiant souls, for heaven contend : Remember glory's at the end; Our God will wipe all tears away, When we have run the good old way. And I'll sing, &c.
- 7 Then far beyond this mortal shore, We'll meet with those who're gone before And him we'll praise in endless day, Who brought us on the good old way And I'll sing, &c.

- 2 Farewell, &c. my friends, time rolls along, Nor waits for mortal exces or bliss, I'll leave you here, and travel on Till I arrive where Jesus is. I'll march. &c.
 - I'll march. &c.

3 Farewell, &c. dear brethren in the Lord, To you I'm bound with cords of love But we believe his gracious word, We all cre long shall meet above, I'll march, &c. Farewell, &c. 4 Farewell, &c. ye blooming sons of God, Sore conflicts yet remain for you; But dauntless keep the heavenly road Till Canaan's happy land you view I'll march, &c.

Farewell, farewells farewell, my loving,

 O watch, and fight, and pray, The battle ne or give o'er; Renew it loudly every day, And help divine implore. $\(\frac{1}{2}\) Ne'er think the victory won, Nor once at ease sit down;
 Thy arduous work will not be done Till thou hast got the crown. # 4. Fight on, my soul, till death
Shall bring thee to thy God;
He'll take thee at thy parting breath,
Up to his rest above.

NEW HAVEN. 6,6,4,6,6,6,4.

Hastings.

2 Come, thou incarnate Word, Gird on thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success:
Spirit of boniness,
On in descend.

3. Come, boly Comforter, Thy sacred witness hear In this glad bour' Thou who almighty art, Now rule in every heart, And no'er from us depart, Spirit of nower' 4. To the great One and Three
The highest praises be,
Hence—evermoral
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see.
And to eternity
Love and solore.

 At his presence nature shakes, Earth affrighted hastes to fiee; Solid mountains melt like wax, What will then become of thee?

- 3. Who his coming may abide? For that glory in your shame,
 Will you find a place to hide
 When the world is wrapp'd in flame?
- 4. Lord, prepare us by thy grace,
 Soon we must resign our breath;
 And our souls be call'd to pass
 Through the iron gate of death.

- 3. My crimes are great, but don't surpass O pity me, dear Saviour, The power and glory of thy grare; O pity me, dear Saviour, &c.
- 4. Oreat God, thy nature hath no bound, O pity me, dear Saviour, So let thy pard'ning love be found, O pity me, dear Saviour, &c.
- 5. Ol wash my soul from every sin! O pity me, dear Saviour, And make my guilty conscience clean; O pity me, dear Saviour, &c.
- 6. Here on my heart the burden lies, O pity me, dear Savjour, And past offences pain my eyes, O pity me, dear Savlour, &c.
- 7. My lips with shame my sins confess, O pity me, dear Saviour, Against thy law, against thy grace; O pity me, dear Saviour, &c.

- 8. Lorg, should the judgments grow severe. O pity me, dear Saviour,
 - I am condemn'd, but thou art clear, O pity me, dear Saviour, &c.
- 9. Should sudden vengeance seize my breath. O pity me, dear Saviour. I must pronounce thee just in death O pity me, dear Saviour, &c.
- 10. And if my soul were sent to hell, O pity me, dear Saviour, Thy righteous law approves it well. O pity me, dear Saviour, &c.
- 11. Yet save a trembiing sinner, Lord, O pity me, dear Saviour, Whose hope, still hov'ring round thy word, O pity me, dear Saviour, &c.
- 12. Would light on some sweet promise there. O pity me, dear Saviour, Some sure support against despair,
 - O pity me, door Savicus, &c.

3. My heart shall triumph in my Lord, And bless his works, and bless his word: Thy works of grace, how bright they shine! How deep thy counsels! how divine!

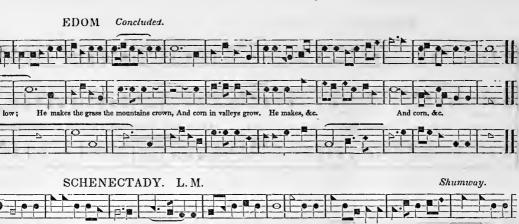

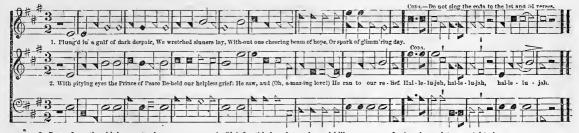

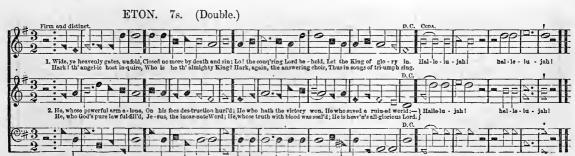

Down from the shining seats above
With joyful haste he fled,
Enter'd the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.

- 4. Oh! for this love let rocks and hills
 Their lasting silence break,
 And all harmbinous human tongues
 The Saviour's praises speak.
- Angels, assist our mighty joys:
 Strike all your harps of gold;
 But when you raise your highest notes
 His love can ne'er be told.

2 Jesus, pardon all our follies, Since together we have been; Make us humble, make us holy, Cleanse us all from every sin: Farewell. brethren; farewell, sisters, Till we all shall meet above.

3. May thy blessing, Lora, go with us
To each one's respective home:
And the presence of our Jesus
Rest upon us every one:
Farewell, brethren; farewell, sisters,
Till we all shall meet at home.

- The way the holy prophets weut, And we'll all shout together, &c.
 The road that leads from banishment, And we'll all shout together, &c.
- The Klog's highway of holluess, And we'll all shout together, &c.
 I'll go, for all his paths are peace, And we'll all shout together, &c.
- This is the way I long have sought, And we'll all shout together, &c.
 And mourn'd because I found it not; And we'll all shout together, &c
- My grief a burden long has been, And we'll all shout together, &c. Because I was not seved from sin; And we'll all shout logether, &c.
- 7. The more I strove against its power, And we'll all shout together, &c. 1 felt its weight and guilt the more; And we'll all shout together. &c.

- Till lats I heard my Savlour say, And we'll all shout together. &c.
 "Come hither, soul, I am the way," And we'll all shout together, &c.
- Lo! glad I come, and thou, blest Lamb, And we'll all shout together, &c.
 Shalt take me to thee, whose I am; And we'll all shout together, &c.
- Nothing but sin have I to give, And we'll all shout together, &c.
 Nothing but love shall I receive: And we'll all shout together, &c.
- Then will I tell to sinners round, And we'll all shout together, &c. What a dear Saviour I have found; And we'll all shout together, &c
- I'll point to thy redeeming lave, And we'll all shout together, &c.
 And say, "Behold the way to God!
 And we'll all shout together, &c.

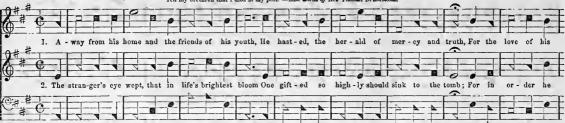

- 2. But now I am a soldier,
 My Captain's gone before;
 He's given me my orders,
 And bids me ne'er give o'er;
 His promises are faithful—
 A righteous erown he'll give,
 And all his valiant soldiers
 Eternally shall live,
 Shout, &c.
- 3. Through grace I feel determined To conquer, though I die, And then away to Jesus, On wings of love I'll fly: Farewell to sin and sorrow, I bid them both adieu! And O my friends, prove faithful, And on your way pursue. Shout, &c.
- 4. Whene'er you meet with troubles
 And trials on your way,
 Then cast your care on Jesus,
 And don't forget to pray.
 Gird on the gospel armour
 Of faith, and hope, and love,
 And when the combat's ended,
 He'll carry you above.
 Shout, &c.
- 6. Oh do not be discouraged, For Jesus is your friend; And if you lack for knowledge, He'll not refuse to lend. Neither will he upbraid you, Though often you request, He'll give you grace to conquer, And take you home to rest. Sbout. &o

Ber, Samuel Wakefield.

Words by Key, Wm Hunter, "Tell my brethren that I died at my post."-Last words of Rev Thomas Drunmond.

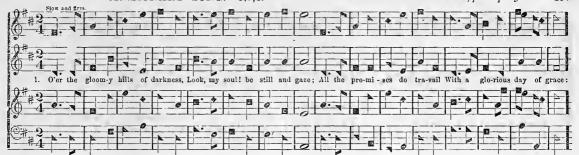

3. He went not him - self that his war - fare was done: The bat - tle was fought, and the vic - to - ry won; But he whis-per'd of those whom his heart clung to most, "Tell my brethren, for me, that I died at my post," "Tell my breth-ren, for me, that I died at my post boon, when he gave up the ghost, That his brethren might know that he died at his post, That his brethren might know that he died at his post.

5. Victorious his fall-for he rose as he fell, With Jesus, his Master, in glory to dwell: He has pass'd o'er the stream, and has reach'd the bright coast. For ue fell like a martyr-ho died at his post.

6. And can we the words of his exit forget? Oh, no! they are fresh in our memory yet: An example so brilliant shall never be loss. We will fall in the work -- we will die at our post

Let the Indian, let the Negro, Let the rude barbarian see That divine and glorious conquest Once obtain'd on Calvary; Let the gospel, Loud resound from pole to pole.

Kingdoms wide, that sit in darkness, Grant them, Lord, the glorious light. And from eastern coast to western May the morning chase the night: And redemption

Freely purchased, win the day.

May the glorious day approaching, On the grossest darkness dawn; And the everlasting gospel Spread abroad thy boly name-All the borders

Of the great Emmanuel's land.

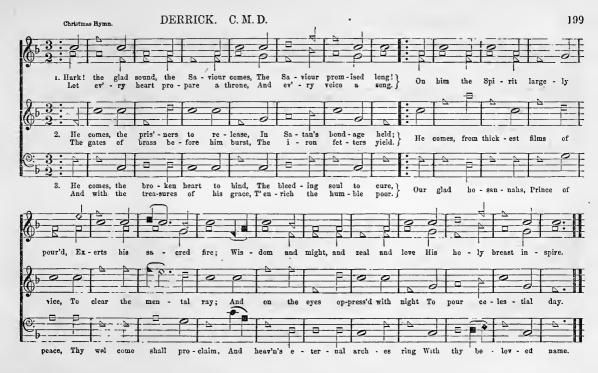

Fly abroad, thou mighty Gospel, Win and conquer, never cease; May thy lasting, wide dominions Multiply and still increase; Sway the sceptre,

Saviour, all the world around

 Reach down, O Lord, thine arm of grace, And cause me to as-cend Where congregations no'er break up, And Sab-baths nover and.
 We're marching, &c.

- How hard was his pillow! how humble his bed? The angels, astonish'd, grew sad at the sight, And follow'd their Master with solemn delight.
- The fame of thy wonder shall ne'er be forgot;
 The theme most transporting to seraphs above,
 The triumph of sorrow, the triumph of love.
- Oh, give him the glory, the praise that is meet; Let joyful hosannas unceasingly rise, And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

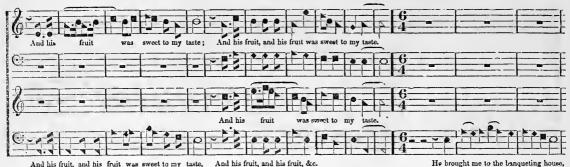

ROSE OF SHARON.

Sol. Song ii. Billings.

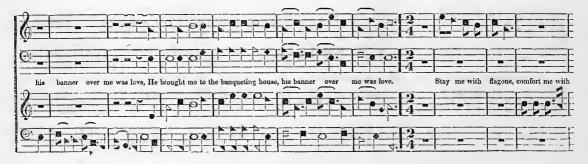

I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valley;

I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valley,

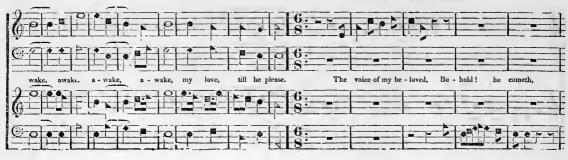

And his fruit, and his fruit, &c. And his fruit, and his fruit was sweet to my taste,

- & Sweet bonds, that unite all the children of peace! And thrico precious Jesus, whose love cannot cease! Though oft from thy presence in sadness I roam. I long to cenold thee in giory, at home. Home, home, &c.
- 3 I sigh from this body of sin to be free, Which hinders my joy and communion with thee; Though now my temptations like billows may foam, All, all will be peace, when I'm with thee at home, Home, home, &c.

- 4 While here in the valley of conflict I stay, O give me submission, and strength as my day; In all my afflictions to thee I would come, Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home, Home, home, &c.
- 5 Whate'er thou deniest, O give me thy grace, The Spirit's sure witness, and smiles of thy face: Indulge me with patience to wait at thy throne. And find, even now, a sweet foretaste of home, Home, home, &c.
- 6 I long, dearest Lord, in thy beautics to shine, No more, as an exile in sorrow to pine, And in thy dear image, arise from the tomb, With glorified millions to praise thee, at home. Home, home, sweet, sweet, home, Receive me, dear Saviour, in glory, my home

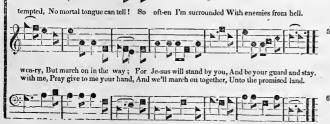

2 The new possessed like fading flowers, Soon loses its gay hue: The bubble now ru longer stays, The soil wants comething new 3 Now could we call all Europe ours, With India and Peru; The mind would feel an aching void, And still want something new.

- 4 But when we feel the power of Christ, All good in him we view;
- The soul forsakes her vain pursuits, In Christ finds something new.
- 5 The joy the dear Redeemer gives, Will bear a strict review. Nor need we ever change again, For Christ is always new
- 6 Come, sinners, then and seek the joys Which Christ bids you pursue; And keep the glorious theme in view, In Christ seek something new
- 7 But soon a change awaits us all. Before the great review; And at his feet with rapture tell. And Heaven brings something now.

4 Through troubles and distresses,
 We'll make our way to God;
 Though earth and hell oppose us,
 We'll keep the heavenly road.
Our Jesus went before us,
 And many sorrows bore,
And we who follow after,
 Can never meet with more.

- 5 Thou dear to me, my brethren,
 Each one of you I find.
 My duty now compels me
 To leave you all behind:
 But while the parting grieves us,
 I humbly ask your prayers,
 To bear me up in trouble,
 And conquer all my fears.
- 6 And now, my loving brothers,
 I bid you all farewell!
 With you my loving sisters,
 I can no longer dwell.

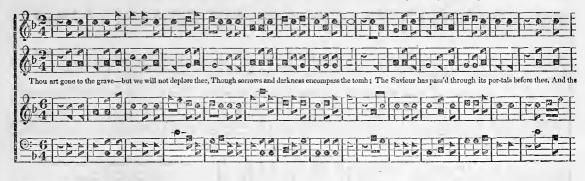

Farewell to every mourner!

I hope the Lord you'll find,
To ease you of your burden,
And give you peace of mind

- 7 Farewell, poor careless sinners!
 I love you dearly well;
 I've labour'd much to bring you
 With Jesus Christ to dweli,
 I now am bound to leave you—
- O tell me, will you go?
 But if you won't decide it,
 I'll bid you all adieu!

 8 We'll bid farewell to sorrow,
- To sickness, care, and pain,
 And mount aloft with Jesus
 For evermore to reigo;
 We'll join to sing his praises
 Above the ethereal blue,
- And then, poor carcless sumers What will become of you?

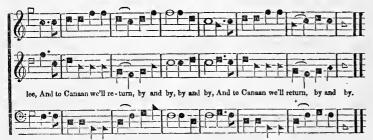

- 2 Thou art gone to the grave—we no longer behold thee, Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side, But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee And sinners may hope, since the Saviour hath died.
- 3 Thou art gone to the grave—and thy cradle's forsaken, With us thy fond spirit did not tarry long, But the sunshine of heaven beam'd bright on thy waking, And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.
- 4 Thou art gone to the grave, but 'twere wrong to deplere thee When God was thy ransom, and guardian, and guide. He gave thee, and took thee, and soon will restore thee, Where death both no sting, since the Saviour bath died

- 2 Our deliverer he shall come, by and by, And our sorrows have an end, With our three-core years and ten. And wast alory crown the day, by and by
- 3 Though our enemies are strong, we'll go or Though our hearts dissolve with fear, Lo, Sinai's God is near, While the ferry pillar moves, we'll go on.

- 4 Though Marah has bitter streams, we'll go on;
 Though Baca'a vale be dry,
 And the land yield no supply;
 To a land of corn and wine, we'll go on.
- 5 And when to Jordan's floods, we are come, Jehovah rules the tide, And the waters he'll divide, And the ransom'd host shall shout, we are come,
- 6 Then friends shall meet again, who have loved, Our embraces shall be sweet At the dear Redeemer's feet, When we meet to part no more, who have loved.
- 7 Then with all the happy throng, we'll rejoice Shouting glory to our King, Till the vaults of heaven rung, And through all eternity we'll rejoice

2 Thus the lion yields me honey From the eater food is given . Strengthen'd thus, I still press forward, Singing as I wade to heaven : Sweet affliction, sweet affliction, And my sins are all forgiven. Sweet, &c. 3 Mid the gloom the vivid lightning. With increasing brightness play Mid the thorn bright beauteous flowrets Look more beautiful and gay. Hallelnjah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, praise the Lord, Hallelujah, &c.

So in darkest dispensations

Doth my faithful Lord appear, With his richest consolations To reanimate and cheer. Sweet affliction, sweet affliction, Thus to bring my Saviour near. Sweet, &c.

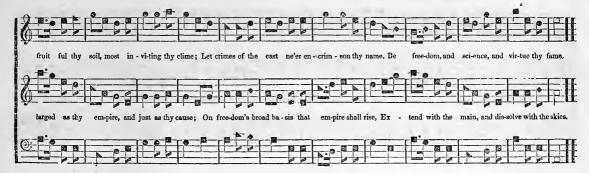

9 Wearing there a weight of glory, 5 Floods of tribulations brighten. Billows still around me roar; Those that know not Christ ve frighten, But my soul defics your power. Hallelniah, Halleluiah, Hallelujah, praise the Lord. Hallelujah, &c.

6 In the sacred page recorded; Thus the word securely stands, -Fear not, I'm in trouble near thee, Nought shall pluck thee from my hands. Sweet affliction, sweet affliction, Every word my love demands. Sweet, &c.

7 All I meet I find assist me. In my path to heavenly joy; Where the trials now attend me. Trials never more annov. Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, praise the Lord. Hallelujah, &c.

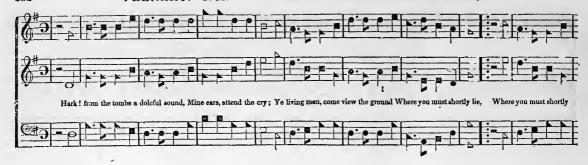

Still the path I'll near forget But exulting cry it led me To my blessed Saviour's fee-Sweet affliction, sweet affliction, Which has brought to Jesus' feet. Sweet &c.

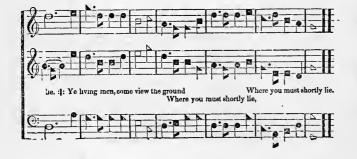

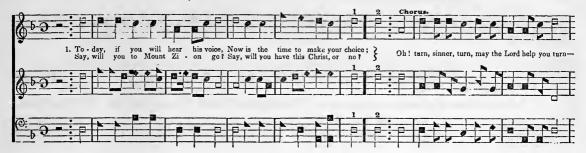

- 3 Fair science her gate to thy sons shall unbar, And the east see thy morn hide the beams of her star; New bards and new sages unrivall'd shall soar To fame unextinguish'd, when time is no more. To the last refuge of virtue design'd, Shall fly from all nations, the best of mankind, There, grateful to Heaven, with transport shall bring Their incense, more fragrant than odours of spring.
- 4 Nor less shall thy fair ones to glory ascend, And genius and beauty in harmony blend; Their graces of form shall awake pure desire, And the charms of the soul still enliven the fire: Their sweetness unmingled, their manners refined, And virtue's bright image enstamp'd on the mind; With peace and sweet rapture shall teach life to glow And light up a smile in the aspect of wo

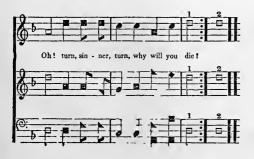

- 5 The fleets to all regions thy power shall display The nations admire, and the ocean obey; Each shore to thy glory its tribute unfold, And the east and the south yield their spaces and gold, A sthe day-spring unbounded thy splendours shall flow, And earth's little kingdoms before thee shall bow, While the ensigns of union in triumph unfurfd, Hush anarchy's sway, and give peace to the world.
- 6 Thus down a lone valley with cedars o'erspread, From the noise of the town I pensively stray'd, The bloom from the face of fair heaven retired, The wind ceas'd to murmur, the thunders expired Perfumes, as of Eden, flow'd sweety along, And a voice, as of angels, enchantingly sung, Columbia! Columbia! to gloya arise, The queen of the world, and the child of the skies.

- "Princes, this clay must be your bed,
 In spite of all your towers;
 The tall, the wise, the reverend head
 Must lie as low as ours"
- 3. Great God, is this our certain doom?
 And are we still secure?
 Still walking downward to the tomb,
 And yet prepare no more!
- Grant us the power of quickening grace,
 To fit our souls to fly;
 Then, when we drop this dying flesh,
 We'll rise above the sky

- 2. Say, will you be for ever blest, And with this glorious Jesus rest? Will you be saved from guilt and pain? Will you with Christ for ever reign? Oh! turn, sinner, &c.
- 3. Make now your choice, and halt no more; He now is waiting for the poor: Say now, poor souls, what will you do? Say, will you have this Christ, or no? Oh! turn, sinner. &c.
- 4. Ye dear young men, for ruin bound, Amidst the Gospel's joyful sound, Come, go with us, and seek to prove The joys of Christ's redeeming love. Oh! turn, sinner, &c.
- 5. Your sports, and all your glittering toys, Compared with our celestial joys, Like momentary dreams appear:— Come, go with us—your souls are dear. Oh! turn. sinner &c.

- 6. Young women, now we look to you, Are you resolved to perish too! To rush in carnal pleasures on, And sink in flaming ruin down! Oh! turn, sinner, &c.
- 7. Then, dear young friends, a long farewell, We're bound to heav'n, but you to hell. Still God-may hear us, while we pray, And change you cre that burning day. Oh! turn, sinner, &c.
- Onco more I ask you, in his name;
 (I know his love renains the same)
 Say, will you to Mount Zion go?
 Say, will you have this Christ, or no?
 Oh! turn, sinner, &c.
- Come, you that love th' incarnate God, And feel redemption in his blood, Let's watch and pray, and onward meve. Till we shall meet in realms above. Oh! urn sinner. &c

- 3. It can oring with it nothing
 But he will bear us through;
 Who gives the lilies clothing
 Will clothe his people too:
 Beneath the spreading heavens,
 No creature but is fed,
 And he who feeds the ravens
 Will give his children bread.
- . Though vine nor fig. tree neither
 Its wonted fruit should bear,
 Though all the fields should wither,
 Nor flocks nor herds be there.
 Yet God, the same abiding,
 His praise shall tune my voice;
 For while in him confiding
 1 "arnot but rejoice

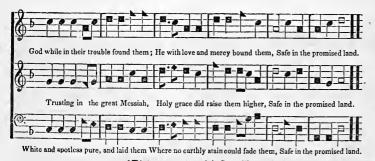

- Although I walk the mountains high, Ere long my body low must lie, And in some lonesome place must rot, And by the living be forgot.
- 4. There it must lie till that great day,
 When Gabriel's awful trump shall say,
 Arise, the judgment day is come,
 When all must hear their final doom.
- If not prepared, then I must go Down to eternal pain and wo, With devils there I must remain, And never more return again.

- But if prepared, oh, blessed thought!
 I'll rise above the mountain's top,
 And there remain for evermore
 On Canaan's peaceful, happy shore.
- Oh! when I think of that blest world, Where all God's people dwell in love, I oft-times long with them to be And dwell in heaven eternally.
- Then will I sing God's praises there, Who brought me through my troubles here I'll sing, and be forever blest, Find sweet and everlasting rest.

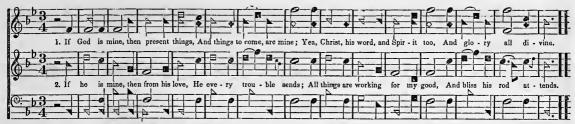

^{* 1} ms some was composed by the A "thoz, in the fast of 1831, white travelling over the mountains, on French Broad River, in North Carolina and Tennessee.

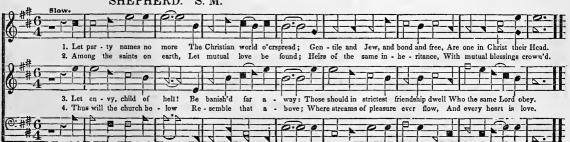

- 4. Where are the holy Christiana? :t. Safe in the promised land: There our souls will join the chorus, Saints and augels sing before us. White all heaven is beaming o'er us, Safe in the promised land,
- 5. By nod by we'll go and meet them, ‡
 Safe in the promised land:
 There we'll sing and shout together,
 There we'll fing and shout hosanna,
 There we'll sing and shout forever,
 Safe in the promised land.
- 6. Glory to God Almighty, : : Who called us unto him. Who are hlind by sinful nature. Who have sinned against our Maxet. Who did send his son to save us, Safe in the promised land.
- 7. Where is our blessed Saviour ? 4: Safe in the promised land: He was senurged and crucified He by Romans was derided, Thus the Lord of glory died. To raise our souts above.

* This tuge was set to music by DAVID WALKER, in 1841; also the last two verses of the song are his composition

- 3. If he is mine, I need not fear
 The rage of earth and hell;
 He will support my feeble frame,
 Their utmost force repel.
- 4. If he is mine, let friends forsake,—
 Let wealth and honours flee—
 Sare he, who giveth me himself,
 Is more than these to me.
- 5. If he is mine, I'll boldly pass
 Through death's tremendous vale:
 He is a solid comfort, when
 All other comforts fail.
- Oh, tell me, Lord! that thou art mine;
 What can I wish beside?
 My soul shall at the fountain live,
 When sll the streams are dried.

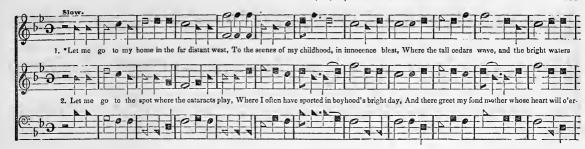

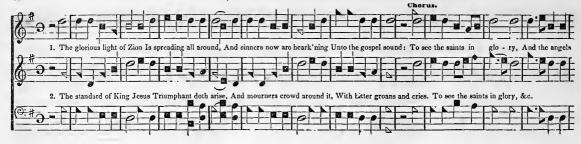

- 5. Alas! I knew not what I did; But now my tears are vain; Where shall my trembling soul be hid? For I the Lord have slain. A second look he gave, which said, "I freely all forgive; This blood is for thy ransom paid, I'll die that thou may'st live."
- 4. Thus, while his death my sin displays
 In all its blackest hue;
 (Such is the mystery of grace,)
 It seals my pardon too.
 With plessing grief and mournful joy
 My spirit now is fill'd,
 That I should such a lite destroy,
 Yet live by him I kill'd.

- 3. Let me go to my sire, by whose battle-scarr'd si 'e I have sported so off in the noon of my pride, And exulted to conquer the insolent foe; To my father, the chief, let ms go, let me go, To my father, the chief, oh! there let me go.
- And, oh! do let me go to my finshing eyed maid, Who hath taught me to love heath the green willow's shade;
 Whose heart like the fawn leaps, and is pure as the
 - To the bosom I love, Lt me go, let me go,
- To the bosom I love, o'il there set me go.
- 6. And, oh! do let me go to my wiki forest house, No more from its life-cheering food pleasures to roam 'Neath the grove of the glea let my askes lie low, To my home in the wood let me go, let me go To my home in the wood, ah! there let me go.

This song, it is said, was composed by the son of a chief of one of the western tribes, who was sen: to the City of Washington to make a treaty with the United States, which treaty was engaged for a while by some unavoidable cucumstances.

- 5. And of that favour'd number. I hope that I am one: And Christ, I trust, will finish The work he has begun: To see the saints in clory, &c. 6. He'll perfect it in righteousness,
- And I shall ever be A monument of mercy, To all eternity.

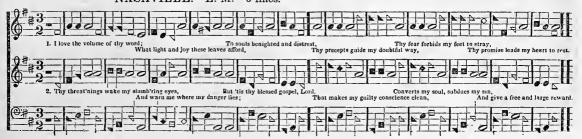

To see the saints in glory. &c.

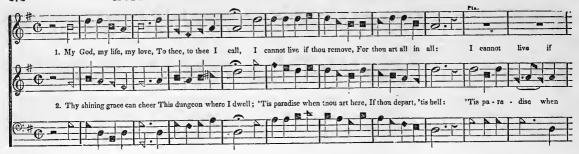

- 7. I am but a young convert, Who lately did enlist A soldier under Jesus. My Prophet, King, and Priest : To see the saints in glory, &c.
- 8. I have received my bounty. Likewise my martial dress, A ring of love and favour, A robe of righteousness. To see the saints in glory, &c.
- 9. Now down into the water Will we young converts go: There went our Lord and Master When he was here below; To see the saints in glory, &c.

- 10. We lay our sinful bodies Beneath the vielding wave, An emblent of the Savjour, When he lay in the grave. To see the saints in glory, &c.
- 11. Poor sinners, think what Jesus Has done for you and me : Behold his mangled body Hung tortured on the tree ! To see the saints in glory, &c.
- 12. His hands, his feet, his bleeding sine To you he doth display ;-Oh! tell me, brother sinner. How can you stay away? To see the snints in glory, &c.
- 13 Come, all you elder brethren Ye soldiers of the cross : Who, for the sake of Jesus. Have counted all things loss, -To see the saints in glory, &c
- 19. Come * ray for us, young converts. -That we may travel on, And meet you all in glory. Where our Redeemer's gone. To see the sauts in glory, &c

NASHVILLE. L. M. 6 lines.

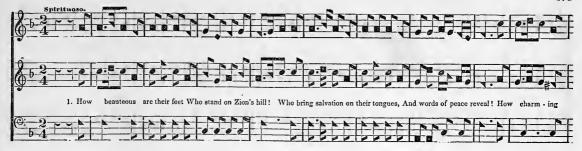

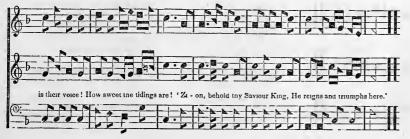

- The amilings of thy face, How amiable they are!
 Tis heaven to rest in thine embrace, And no where else but there.
- To thee, and thee alone,
 The angels owe their bliss;
 They sit around thy gracious throne,
 And dwell where Jesus is.
- Not all the harps above Can make a heavenly place, If God his residence remove, Or but conecal his face.

- Nor earth, nor all the sky
 Can one delight afford,
 No, not a drop of real joy,
 Without thy presence, Lord.
- Thou art the sea of love,
 Where all my pleasures roll,
 The circle where my passions move,
 And centre of my soul.
- To thee my spirits fly
 With infinite desire,
 And yet how far from thee I lie!
 Dear Jesus raise me nigher.

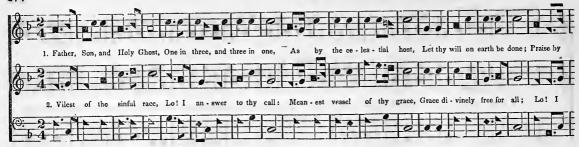

- 2. How happy are our cars

 That hear this joyful sound
 Which kings and prophets waited for,

 And sought, but never found!
- How blessed are our eyes
 That see this heavenly light
 Prophets and kings desired it long,
 But died without the sight.
- 3. The watchmen join their voice, And tuneful notes employ; Jerusalem breaks forth in songs And deserts learn the joy. The Lord makes bare his arm Through all the earth abroad Let every nation now benow Their Saviour and their God

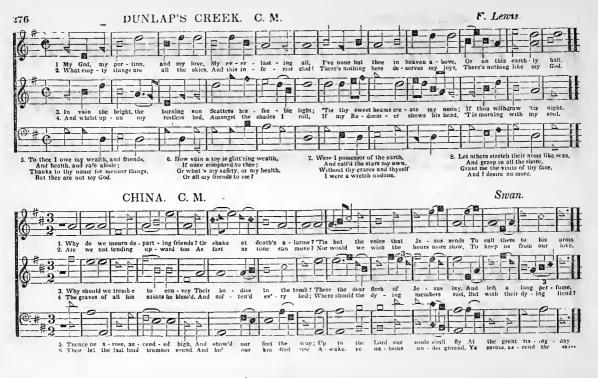

- 3. If so poor a worm as I
 May to thy great glory live,
 All my actions sanctify,
 All my words and thoughts receive;
 Claim me for thy service, claim
 All I have, and all I am.
- 4. Take my soul and body's powers,
 Take my memory, mind, and will:
 All my goods, and all my hours,
 All I know, and all I feel;
 All I think, or speak, or do;
 Take my heart, but unake it new!
- 5. New, my God, thine own I am, Now I give thee back thine own: Freedom, friends, and health, and fame Consecrate to thee alone: Thine I live, thrice happy I! Happier still if thine I die.
- 6. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, One in three, and three in one As by the celestial host, Let thy will on earth be done. Praise by all to thee be given, Glurous Lerd of earth and heaven

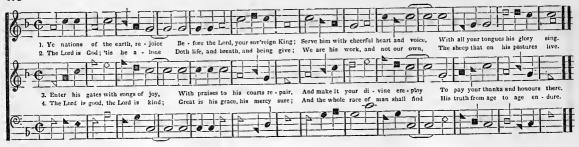

- Nothing in my hand I bring, Simply to thy cross I cling; Naked, come to thee for dress; Helpless, look to thee for grace: Black, I to the fountain fly, Wash me. Saviour. or I die.
- 4. While I draw this flecting breath, When my eye-strings break in death When I soar to worlds unknown. See thee on thy judgment throne. Rock of Ages, spetter me: I et me hide myself in then?

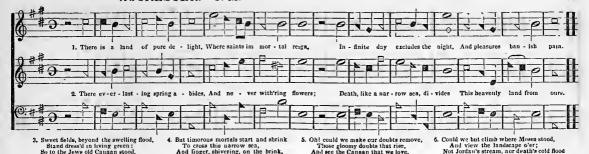

Should fright us from the shore,

And see the Canaan that we love.

With unbeclouded eves.

STONINGTON. S. M.

So to the Jews old Canaan stood,

While Jordan roll'd between.

And hoger, shivering, on the brink,

And fear to launch away.

 Come, worship at his throne, Come, bow before the Lord: We are his works and oot our own; He form'd us by his word.

4. To day attend his voice,

Nor dare provoke his rod;

Come, like the people of his choice,

And own your gracious God.

SILVER STREET. S. M.

- 5. But if your ears refuse
 The language of his gamee,
 And hearts grow hard like stubborn Jews,
 That unbelieving race;
- The Lord, in vengeance drest,
 Will lift his hand and swear,
 "You that despise my promised rest
 Shall have no portion there."

- Zion, thrice happy place, Adorn'd with wondrous grace, And walls in strength embrace thee r and In thee our tribes appear, To pray, and praise, and hear The sacred gospel's joyful sound.
- 3. There David's greater Son has fix'd his royal throne:
- Has fix'd his royal throne:
 He sits for grace and judgment there
 He bids the saint be glad,
 He makes the sinner said,
 And humble souls rejoice with fea.
- 4. May peace attend thy gate, And Joy within thee wait, To bless the soul of ev'ry guest; The man that seeks thy peace, And wishes thme increase. A thousand blessings on him rest!
- My tongue repeats her vows, "Peace to this sacred house!" For here my friends and kindred dwe't And since my giorious God Makee thee his bleet aboute. My soul shall eer "e thee war.

7. " My busy thoughts at first On their salvation ran, Ere sin was born, or Adam's dust Was fashion'd to a mao.

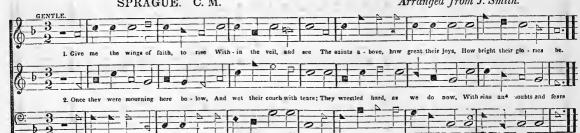

Ye children, and he wise ; Happy the man that keeps my ways; The man that shuns them dies."

SPRAGUE. C. M.

The earth was balanced well;

With joy I saw the mansion where

- 3. The smilings of thy face,
 How annable they are!
 'Tis heaven to rest in thine embrace,
 And no where else but there.
- To thee, and thee alone,
 The angels owe their bliss;
 They sit around thy gracious throne,
 And dwell where Jesus is.
- Not all the harps above
 Can make a hosvenly place,
 If God his residence remove,

 Where all my pleasures roll,
 The circle where my passions move
 And centre of my soul.
- To thee my spirits fly
 With infinite desire,
 And yet how far from thee I lie
 Dear Jesus, raise ne mgher.

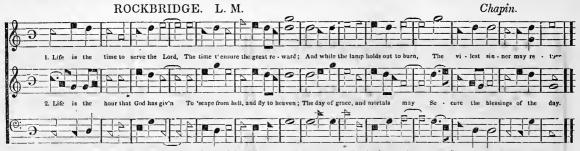

- Blest are the saints who sit on high, Around thy throne of majesty; Thy brightest gluries shine above, And all their work is praise and love.
- 5. Blest are the souls that find a place Within the temple of thy grace;
 There they behold thy gentler rays,
 And seek thy lace, and learn thy praiso.
- Blest are the men whose hearts are set To find the way to Zion's gate; God is their strength, and through the road They lean upon their helper, God.
- Cheerful they walk with growing strength, Till all shall meet in heaven at length, Till all before thy face appear, And join in nobler worship there

- 3 The living know that they must die, But all the dead forgotion lie, Their memory and theer sense is gone, Alike unknowing and unknown
- 4 Their hatred and their love is lost. Their envy buried in the dust: They have no share in all that's done Beneath the circuit of the sun.
- 5. Then what my thoughts design to do. My hands with all your might pursue, Since no device, nor work is found, Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.
- 6. There are no acts of pargon past In the cold grave to which we haste. But darkness, death, and long despart Reign in eternal silvoce there

That awful day will soon appear, When Gabriel's trumpet you shall hear Sound through the earth, yee down to hell, To call the nations great and small.

To see the earth in burning flames,
The trumpet louder here proclaims,
"The world shall hear and know her doom,
The separation now is come."

Beheld the righteous marching home, And all the angels bid them come; Whe'e Christ, the judge, with joy proclaims, "Here come my saints, I'll own their cames "Ye evertasting donrs fly wide, Make ready to receive my bride; Ye trumps of heaven proclaim abroad, Here comes the purchase of my bload."

7.
In grandeur see the royal line
In glitt'ring robes the sun outshine;
See saints and angels join in one
And march in splendour to the throne

They stand and wonder, and look ou— They join in one eternal song, Their great Redeemer to admire, While raptures set the souls on fire

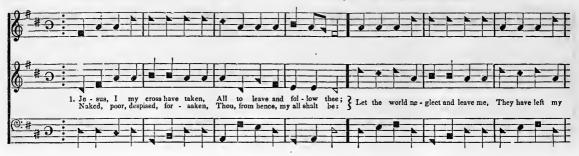

MISSIONARY'S ADIEU. C. M.

Perish earthly fame and treasure, Come disaster, scorn and pain, In thy service pain is pleasure, With thy favour loss is gain:

Oh! 'tis not in grief to harm me, While thy bleeding 'ove I see:

Oh! 'tis not in joy to charm me.

When that love is hid from me

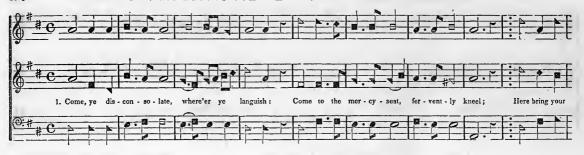

THIS WORLD IS NOT MY HOME. C.M.

As sung by Rev. Mr. Gamewell.

- 2 Should earth against my soul engage, And ficry darts be burl'd, Then I can smile at Sstan s rage, And face a frowning world
- 3 Let cares like a wild deluge come, And storms of sorrow fall, May I but safely reach my home, My God, my heaven, my all.
- 4. There I shall bathe my weary soul In sens of heavenly rest. And not a wave of trouble roll Across my peaceful breast.
- 5. When we've been there ten thousand years, Bright shining as the sun. We've no less days to mng God's praise. Than when we first regun.

^{*} The stur is only used in sloging the chorus; in singing the verses, sing as if there was no clur.

- 2. He built those worlds above,
 And fix'd their wond'rous frame;
 By his command they stand or move,
 And ever speak his name.
 Ye vapours, when ye rise,
 Or fall in showers or snow,
 Ye thunders murm'ring round the skies,
 His power and glory show.
- 3. Wind, hail, and flashing fire,
 Agree to praise the Lord,
 When ye in dreadful storms conspire
 To execute his word.
 By ell his works above
 His honours be exprest;
 But saints that taste his saving love
 Should sing his praises best.

PAUSE 1.

4. Let earth and ocean know
They owe their Maker praise;
Praise him, ye watery worlds below,
And monsters of the seas.

From mountsins near the sky
Let his high praise resound,
From humble shrubs and cedsrs high,
And vales and fields around.

- 5. Ye lions of the wood, And tamer beasts that graze, Ye live upon his daily food, And he expects your praise. Ye birds of lofty wing, On high his praises bear; Or sit on flowery boughs, and sing Your Maker's glory there.
- 6. Ye creeping ants and worms,
 His various wisdom show,
 And flies, in all your shining swarms,
 Praise him that dress'd you so.
 By sill the earth-born race
 His honours be exprest:
 But saints that know his heavenly grace
 Should learn to praise him best.

PAUSE II.

- 7. Monarchs of wide command, Praise ye th' eternal King; Judges, adore that sovereign hand Whence all your honours spring. Let vigorous youth engage To sound his praises high; While growing babes, and withering ago, Their feebler voices try.
- 8. United zeal be shown

 His wond'rous fame to raise;
 God is the Lord; his name alone
 Deserves our endless praise.
 Let nature join with srt,
 And all pronounce him bleat;
 But saints that dwell so near his heart
 Should sing his praises boat.

9. While eagelic leglons, with harps tuned celestial, liarmoniously join in the concert of prise, The saints, as they flock from the regions terrestrial, In loud hallelujah their voices will raise; Then sangs to the Lambshall re-echo through heaven, My soul will respond, to lumanuch be given All glory, all honour, all might and dominion, Who brought us, through grace to the Eden of lova.

3. Then heil, blessed state! hail, we singsters of glory! Ye harpers of bias, soon! I'll meet you above, And Join your full choir in rehearsing the story, Salvation from sorrow through beaus's love; Though prison'd in earth, yet by anticipation Aiready my son! feels a sweet preblation Of Joya that await me when freed from production My bert's nuw in heaven, he Eden of Jose.

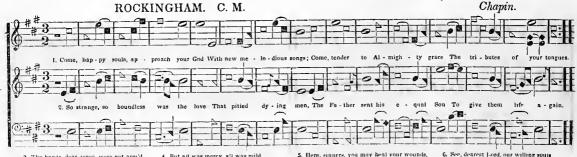

* This tone was a great favourte with the late Dr. Dwight. It was often sung by the College Choir, while he, "catching, as it were, the inspiration of the heavenly world, would jobs show and lead them with the most arient devolun,"—Incidents in the Life of President Dwight, p. 35

MILLEDGEVILLE. C. M.

Original parts from Rev. A. Grambling

- 3. What peaceful nours I then enjoy as
 How sweet their memory still!
 But now I find an aching void
 The world can never fill.
- Sweet messenger of rest!
 I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
 And drove thee from my breast.
- The dearest idol I have known, Whate'er that idol be, Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship only thee.
- 5. So shall my walk be close with God, Calm and serene my frame; So purer light shall mark the road That leads me to the Lamb.

- 3. Thy hands, dear sesus, were not arm'd With a revenging tod: No hard commission to perform The vengence of a God
- But all was mercy, all was mild,
 And wrath forsook the throoe,
 When Christ on the kind errand came,
 And brought salvation dowg.
- 5. Here, sinners, you may be at your wounds And wipe your sortows dry; Trust in the mighty Saviour's name, And you shall never die.
- See, dearest Lord, our willing sound Accept thine offer'd grace.
 We bless the great Redecoler's law.
 And give the Father press.

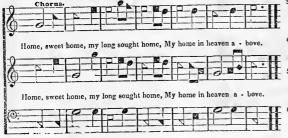

2. The armies now are in parade, How martial they appear? All arm'd and dress'd in uniform. They look like men of war: They follow their great General,
The great Eternal Lamb
His garments stain'd with his own blood,
King Jesus is his name

- 4. The trumpet sounds, the armier shous, And drive the hosts of hell; How dreadful is our God in arms! The great Immanue!—
 8inners, enliet with Jesus Christ Th' eternal Son of God, And march with us to Canaan's land, Beyond the swelling flood.
- 5. There is a green and flow'ry field,
 Where fruits immortal grow;
 There, clothed in white, the angels bright
 Our great Redeemer know.
 We'll shout and sing for eventore
 In that eternal world;
 But Satan and his armies too,
 Shall down to hell be hurl'd.
- 6. Hold up your heads, ye soldiers bald, Redenotion's drawing nigh. We soon shall hear the arounjet sound. Twill shake hold earth and sky. In fiery charints then we'll fly And leave the world on £:- And meet around the starry throma To tune ta'immornal ives-

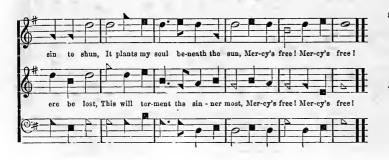

- 3. Thy gardens and thy pleasant greens, My study long have been ; Such sparkling light, by human sight, Has never yet been seen. Home, sweet home, &c.
- 4. If heaven be thus glorious, Lord, Why should I stay from thence : What folly 't is that I should dread To die and go from hence !
 - And cause me to ascend, Where congregations ne'er break up, And sabbaths never end.
- 6. Jesus, my love, to glory's gone; Him will I go and ace; And all my brethren here below Will agon come after me.

- 7. My friends, I bid you all adieu ! I leave you in God's care; And if I never more sec you, Go on,-I'll meet you there. Home, sweet home, &c.
- There we shall meet and no more part.
 And heaven shall ring with praise; While Jesus' love, in every heart, Shall tune the song free grace.
- 5. Reach down, reach down thine arm of \ 9. And if our fellowship below In Jesus be so sweet, What heights of rapture shall we know When round the throne we meet !
 - 10. Millions of years around may run-Our songs shall still go on, To praise the Father and the Son. And Spirit, - Three in One. Home, sweet home. &c.

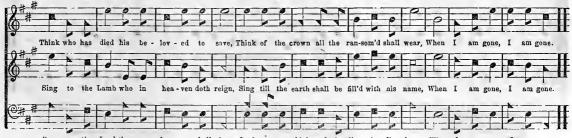

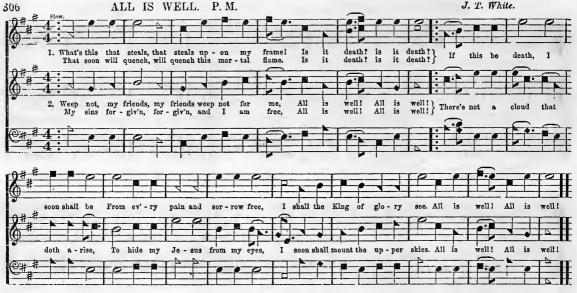

- 8. Swell, O swell the heavenly chorus, Mercy's free! Mercy's free! The devil's kingdom falls before us, Mercy's free! Mercy's free! Sinners, repent, inquire the road That leads to glory and to God, Come, wash in Christ's atoning blood, Mercy's free! Mercy's free!
- 4. This truth through all our life shall cheer us, Mercy's free! Mercy's free! And through the vale of death shall bear us, Mercy's free! Mercy's free! And when to Jordan's banks we come, And cross the raging billow's foam, We'll sing, when safely landed home, Mercy's free! Mercy's free!

am gone: } Praise ye the Lord that I'm freed from all care, am gone. } Sing a swect song, such as an - gels may have, When I am gone, when I

Pray ye the Lord that my joys you shall share, Look up on high and be-lieve that I'm there, When I am gone, I am gone.

- 8. Tune, tune your harps, your harps, we saints on high, like well. All is well. They're runni my bed, they're in my room, They wait to wait my opini home.
 All is well. All is well. All is well.
- e. Hark! hark! my Lord, my Lord and Master's voice, Calls away, Calls away! I soon shall see—enjoy my happy choice, Why delay, Why delay!

Farewell, my friends, adicu, adicu, I can no longer stay with you, My glittering crown appears in view.

All is well, All is well,

5. Hall i hall all hall !all hall !ye blood-wash'd throng, Saved by grece, Saved by grace. I come to join, to join your rapturous song. Saved by grace, Saved by grace All, all is peace and joy divine.

And heaven and glory now are mine, Loud hallelujahs to the launt! All is weni, All is wei.

My heart's now in heaven, the E den of Love.

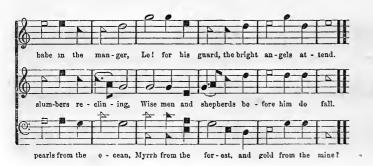

tion.

At - read-y my soul feels a sweet preli - be - tion

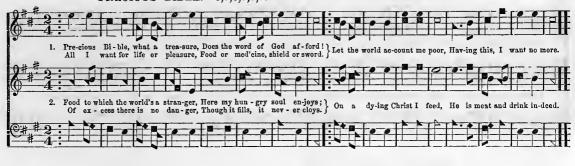

Of joys that a-wait me, when freed from proba - tion:

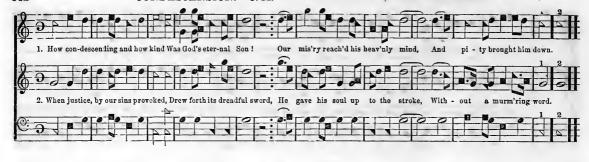

- Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
 Vainly with gold we his favour secure;
 Richer by far is the heart's adoration;
 Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.
- Low at his feet we in humble prostration, Lose all our sorrow and trouble and strife; There we receive his divine consolation, Flowing afresh from the fountain of life.
- 6. He is our friend in the midst of temptation, Faithful supporter, whose love cannot fail; Rock of our refuge, and hope of salvation, Light to direct us through death's gloomy vale
- Star of the morning, thy brightness, declining, Shortly must fade when the sun doth arise: Beaming refulgent, his glory eternal Shines on the children of love in the skies

SWEET HEAVEN. L. M.

- On his head the dews of midnight, Fell, long ago, Now a crewn of dazzling sunlight Sits on his brow.
- 4. Josas died—yet lives forever,
 No more to die—
 Bloeding Jesus, blessed Saviour,
 Now recens on high!

- Now in heaven he's interceding For dying men,
 Soon he'll hinish all his pleading,
 And come again.
- Budding fig-trees tell that summer
 Dawns e'er the land,
 Signs pertend that Jesus' coming,
 Is near at hand.

- Children, let your lights he hurning, In hope of heaven.
 - Waiting for our Lord's returning At dawn or even.
- S. When he comes a voice from heaven
 Shall pierce the tomh,
 "Come, yo blessod of my Father,
 Children, come nor "?"

- I've fought through many a battle sore, Till the warfare is over, hallefujah!
 And I must fight through many more, Till the warfare is over, &c.
- I take my breast-plate, sword, and shield, Till the warfure is over, hallelujah!
 And boldly march luto the field, Till the warfare is over. &c.
- The world, the flesh, and Satan too, Till the warfare is over, hallelujah! Unite and strive what they can do; Till the warfare is over, &c.
- On thee, O Lord, I humbly call, Till the warfare is over, hallelujah! Uphold me or my soul must fall, Till the warfare is over. &c.
- I've listed, and I mean to fight
 Till the warfare is over, hallelujah!
 Till all my foes are put to flight;
 Till the warfare is over, &c.
- And when the victory I have won, Till the warfare is over, hallelujah.
 I'li give the praise to God alone, I'll the warfare is over, &c.

- Come, fellow-Christiens, join with me, Till the warfare is over, hallelujah!
 Come, face the foe, and never fice, Till the warfare is over. &c.
- 10. The heavenly hattle is begun, Till the warfare is over, hallelujah! Come, take the field, and win the crown Till the warfare is over, &c.
- With listing orders I have come;
 Till the warfare is over, hallelujs
 Come rich, come poor, come old or rung,
 Till the warfare is over, &c.
- 12. Here's grace's bounty, Christ has, given, Till the warfare is over, hallelujah! And glorious crowns laid up in heaven: Till the warfare is over, &c.
- Our Geu'ral ha is gona before,
 Till the warfare is over, hallelujah!
 And you may draw ou grace's store,
 Till the warfare is over, &c.
- 14. But, if you will not list and Sght, Till the warfare is over, hallelman' You'll sink into eternal night; Till the warfare 'a over, &c

- 4. Then the valleys and the mountains, Breaking forth, in joy shall sing; Then the living crystal fountain From the thirsty ground shall spring. Ilallelujah: ||: Hail. &c.
- While the wilderness rejoices,
 Roses shall the desert cheer;
 Then the dumb shall tune their voices,
 Blind shall see, the deaf shall hear.
 Hallelujah : ## Hail, &c.
- Lord of every tribe and nation, Spread thy truth from pole to pole; Spread the light of thy salvation Till it shines on every soul. Hallelujah :||: Hail, &o

316

And heav'n and na-ture sing,

And heav'n and na-ture sing, And heav'n, &c.

Far, &c.

- Joy to the world, the Saviour reigns, Let men their songs employ; While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains Ropest the sounding joy.
- No more let sin and sorrow grow,
 Nor thorns infest the ground;
 Ile comes to make his blessings flow
 { Far as the curse is found }
 Second Ending.
- He rules the world with truth and grace, And makes the nations prove The glories of his righteousness, And wonders of his love.

- 4. No chilling winds, nor pois'nous breath
 Can reach that healthful shore;
 Sickness and sorrow, pain and death
 Are felt and fear'd no more.
- When shall I reach that happy place, And be forever blest?
 When shall I see my Father's face, And in his bosom rest?

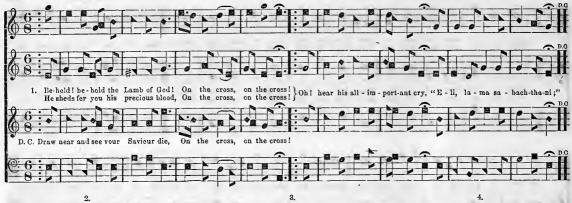

6. Fill'd with delight, my raptured soul
Would here no longer stay:
Though Jordan's waves should round me roll
I'd fearless launch awar.

3. It is not fann'd by summer gale;
"Tis not refresh'd by vernal show'rs;
It never needs the moombeam pale,
For there are known no evening hours:
No, for this world is ever bright
With a puro radiance all its own;
The stream of uncreated light
Flows round it from th' eternal throne.

4. There forms that mortals may not see,
Too glorious for the eye to trace,
And elad in peerless majesty,
Move with unutterable grace:
In vain the philosophic eye
May seek to view the fair abode,
Or far I it in the curtain'd sky:
It is the dwelling-place of God.

Behold his arms extended wide, On the cross, &c. Behold his bleeding hands and side, On the, &c. The sun withholds his rays of light, The heavens are clothed in shades of night, While Jesus doth with dovils fight, On the, &c.

Come, sinners, see him lifted up, On the, &c. For you he drinks the bitter cup, On the, &c. The rocks do rend, the mountains quake, While Jesus suffers for our sake, On the, &c.

And now the mighty deed is done, On the, &c. The battle's fought, the victory's won, On the, &c. To heaven he turns his languid eyes, "Tis finished," now the Conquerer cries, Then hows his sacred head and dies, On the, &c

Where'er I go I'll tell the story, Of the, &c. Of nothing cles my soul shall glory, Save the, &c. Yea, this my constant theme shall be, Through time and in eternity
That Jesus tasted death for mc. On the, &c.

Let every mourner rise and cling, To the, &c. Let every Christian come and sing, Round the, &c. There let the preacher take his stand, Aud, with the Bible in his hand, Declare the triumphs through the land, Of the, &c.

- 8. Ye wonderful orbs that astonish my eyes Your glories recede from my sight, I soon shall contemplate more beautiful skies, And stars more resplendently bright.
- 4. Ye mountains and valleys, groves, rivers and plains, 5. My loved habitation and gardens adicu, Thou earth and thou ocean, adieu! More permanent regions where righteousness reigns,
 - Present their bright hills to my view.
- No longer my footsteps ye greet, A mansion celestial stands full in my view,

And paradise welcomes my feet.

The locks on his head are as graves on the vine.

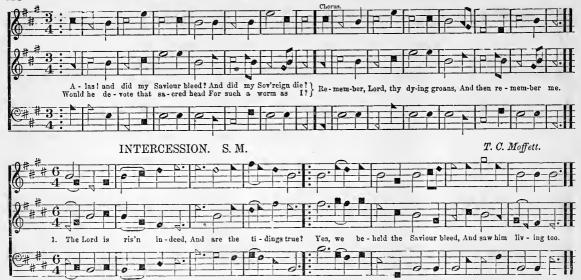

The air is perfumed with his breath

Whom autumn with plenty is crown'd.

And where, with his their, he is rone?

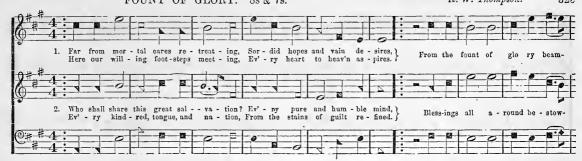

- I feel no ways like getting tired. O. glory, hallelujah!
 I am making for the harbour—Hallelujah!
- 5 I hope to get there by and by, 0, glory, hallelujah! For my home is over Jordan—Hallelujah!
- 6. I have some friends before me gone. O, glory, hallelujah! By and by I'll go and meet them—Hallelujah!
- I'll meet them round our Father's throne, O. glory, hallelujah!
 And we'll live with God forever—Hahelujah!
- O! how it lifts my soul to think, O, glory, hallelulah!
 Of soon meeting in the kingdom—Hallelulah!
- Our God will wipe all tears away, U, giory, hallelujah.
 When we all arrive at Canana—Hallelujah

2. The Lord is risen indeed,
Then hell has lost his prey,
With him is risen the ransom seed,
To reign in endless day.

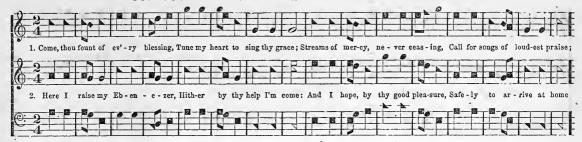

- The Lord is risen indeed, Attending angels hear;
 Up to the courts of heaven with speed, Theric, full tidings bear
- Then make your golden lyres, And strike each cheerful chord; Join all ye bright, celestial choirs, To sing our risen Lord.

2. This is the way I long have sought, And mourn'd because I found it not; My grief and burden long has been, Because I was not saved from sin. Hallelujah, &c. 3. The more I strove against its power, felt its weight and guilt the more,
Till late I heard the Saviour say,
Come hither, soul, I am the way.
Hallelujah, &c.

3. O! to grace how great a debt - or Dai - ly I'm constrain'd to be! Let that grace, Lord, like a fet - ter Bind my wand'ring heart to thee!

Prone to wan-der, Lord, I feel it; Prone to leave tho God I love-Hiere's my heart, Lord, take and seal it. Seal it from thy courts a - bove. Chorus-Hal-le - lu - jah! Hal-le - lu - jah! Hal-le - lu - jah! Hal-le - lu - jah! Je - sus smiles and bids us come

- 3. Scenes of sacred peace and pleasure. 4. Yes. I hasten from you gladly. Holy days and Sabbath bell, Richest, brightest, sweetest treasure! Can I say a last farewell ? Can I leave you-Far in heathen lands to dwell? : #:
 - From the scenes I loved so well! Far away, ye billows, bear me : Lovely, native land, farewell! Pleased I leave thee-Far in heathen lands to dwell. : []:
- 5. In the deserts let me labour. On the mountains let me tell How He died-the blessed Saviour-To redeem a world from hell! Let me hasten-
 - Far in heathen lands to dwell. : #
- 6. Bear me on, thou restless ocean; Let the winds my canvas swell-Heaves my heart with warm emotion. While I go far hence to dwell. Glad I leave thee.

Native land - Farewell - Farewell ! : !!

- 4. Then art passing away, as the first summer rose, That awaits not the time when the Winter wind blows, But hasteth away on the Autumn's quick gale, And scatters its odors o'er mountain and dale.
- 5. The light of thy beauty has faded and gone, For the withering chills have already come on; Thy charms have departed—thy glory is fled; And thou soon wilt he laid in the house of the dead.
- 6. Thou shalt soon be consigned to the cold, dreary tomb, The lot of all living—mortality's doom: Thou shalt there sweetly rest in the calmest repose, Undisturbed by life's cares, and unpierced by its woes.
- 7. "Who, who would live always away from his God? Away from yon heaven, the blissful abode, Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains, And the noontide of guery eternally reigns?"

 Oh, by the anguish of that night, Send us down blest relief,
 Or to the chastened let thy might Hallow this grief. 3. And thou that, when the starry sky,
Saw the dread strife begun,
Didst teach ndoring faith to cry,
Thy will be done.

By thy meek spirit, then of all,
 That e'er have mourned the chief,
 Blest Saviour, if the stroke must fall,
 Hallow this grief.

Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
 Hope of the penitent, fadeless, and pure,
 Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
 Earth has no sorrow that heav'n cannot cure.

3. Here see the bread of life; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
Come to the feast love; come, ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow but heav'n can remove.

3. This world is full of dan-gers, And foes that press me hard; But Je-sus he has pro-mised That he will be m

 Here I shall not be tempted Above what I can bear, When fightings are exerted, His kingdom for to share. From him I have my orders, And while I do obey, I find his holy spirit Illuminates my way. The way is so delightful,
 I wish to travel on.
 Till I arrive at heaven.
 T' receive a starry crown.

- At-though you must tra ver the dark win der ness, Tour Cap tains be - fore you, he it lead you to peace
- Farewell, trembling mourners, with sad broken hearts, hasten to Jesus, and choose the good part!

 fle's full of compassion, and mighty to save,
 lie grms are extended, your souls to receive.
- Farewell, careless sinners, for you I must mourn, To think of your danger, if still unconcern'd; I read of the judgment, where all must appear, How will you stand trembling with tormenting fear!
- Farewell, my dear brethren, farewelt all around, Perhaps we'll not meet till the last trump shall sound To meet you in glory I give you my hand, Our Saviour to paise in a pure social band
